

Subhi Brož has become the new Thein Group CFO

Prague, August 13th 2020 - Thein investment group has a new CFO; Subhi Brož, who up until recently led the Czechoslovak branch of ECO-Investment holding. He will lead the acquisition team in Thein and will help the management with integration of new companies into the group. Aside from that, he'll assist the acquired companies with financial management and their efficiency and profit increase.

„I've been a part of both international audit and financial groups, and successful local companies. I'd like to bring new ideas and practical experience acquired in large corporations and small companies to Thein,” says Subhi Brož in regard to his transfer to Thein investment group.

Subhi Brož has more than 20 years of experience in top management. He started his career at KPMG, and then assumed a project manager role in Credit Suisse. He became a CEO of one of the biggest software companies in Liberec Inisoft at 31 years old. Then he relocated to the countries of former Yugoslavia, where he successfully completed reorganisation of two of the largest paper companies in the Balkan region. He spent the last ten years in the aforementioned ECO- INVESTMENT holding as a CEO.

“Subhi Brož was a great addition to our team. Excellent financial analysis and economic oversight and support are very important for our work. Subhi is an experienced specialist in this field. His practical approach and negotiating skills add to his assets. I'm very much looking forward to working with him,” adds Thein group CEO Jana Moravová.

About Thein:

Thein is an investment group owned by a technological expert and investor Tomáš Budník, which specialises in technological companies in the Czech Republic and Slovakia operating in ICT, cyber security and industry 4.0. It wants to connect interesting projects with exceptional results in its portfolio, and provide them with business and infrastructure expertise. Thein's main philosophy is looking for new synergy amongst the individual projects and keeping the Czech know-how in Czech hands. The Thein group was established in April 2020.

Media contact:

Ondřej Tengler / Rubikon PR

E-mail: ondrej.tengler@rubikonpr.cz

Tel: +420 737 503 252