HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS

WHY I'M THANKFUL

*I AM thankful
FOR*

- The messes to clean after a party because it means friends have surrounded me.
- The taxes I pay because it means that I'm employed.
- The clothes that fit a little too snug because it means I have enough to eat.
- My shadow who watches me work because it means I am out in the sunshine.
- A lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning and gutters that need fixing because it means I have a home.
- All the whining I hear about our government because it means we have freedom of speech.
- The spot I find at the far end of the parking lot because it means I am capable of walking.
- My huge heating bill because it means I am warm.
- The person behind me in church who sings off key, because it means that I can hear.
- The piles of laundry because it means my loved ones are nearby.
- Weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day because it means I have been productive.
- The alarm clock ringing in the early morning because it means that I'm awake and alive.

A Thanksgiving Prayer

Loving God, who created and sustains the universe, who loved us all into being, and who gives us every good thing, we thank you for the blessings that you bring into our lives. We thank you for the gift of life itself, which you gave us in our mothers' wombs. We thank you for the fresh start of each new day, which is a sign of your renewing and creative love. And we thank you for our friends, our families, our neighbours and our coworkers, whose human love is an image of your divine care.

Increase our gratitude this Thanksgiving Day, and help us to recognize all the good things that we have, both large and small.

And magnify our desire to share what we have with others, so that they too may be grateful to you, Loving God. Amen.

James Martin S.J.

ST. TERESA OF AVILA – Feast Day October 15

Theresa was born in Avila, Spain, on March 28, 1515, and died in 1582. Of the many women who have exercised leadership roles in the Church, Teresa must surely be considered among the greatest. When she entered the Carmelite convent, some thought Teresa was a spoiled young woman with an unremarkable prayer life but she soon advanced in prayer, experiencing visions and hearing voices.

Dissatisfied with the laxity she perceived among religious, she determined to institute reforms and established St Joseph's Convent where enclosure and a strict rule prevailed. With the assistance of Peter of Alcantara and John of the Cross, Teresa succeeded in founding the reformed (Discalced) Carmelite orders of nuns and friars.

Teresa wrote several works considered classics of spiritual literature, including The Way of Perfection and The Interior Castle. A great mystic and a strong, intelligent and active leader, Teresa was canonized in 1622 and in 1970 became the first woman to be declared a Doctor of the Church.

“God has been very good to me, for I never dwell upon anything wrong which a person has done, so as to remember it afterwards. If I do remember, I always see some other virtue in that person.” St Teresa of Avila

Correction: Recent offering published on last Sunday's bulletin was for the month of September, not of July.
