FEAST OF THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD

The Ascension of Our Lord, which occurred 40 days after Jesus Christ rose from the dead on Easter, is the final act of our redemption that Christ began on Good Friday. On this day, the risen Christ, in the sight of His apostles, ascended bodily into Heaven (Luke 24:51; Mark 16:19; Acts 1:9-11).

The reality of Christ’s Ascension is so important that the creeds (the basic statements of belief) of Christianity all affirm, in the words of the Apostles’ Creed, that “He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.” The denial of the Ascension is as grave a departure from Christian teaching as is denial of Christ’s Resurrection. Christ’s bodily Ascension fore-shadows our own entrance into Heaven not simply as souls, after our death, but as glorified bodies, after the resurrection of the dead at the Final Judgement. In redeeming mankind, Christ not only offered salvation to our souls but began the restoration of the material world itself to the glory that God intended before Adam’s fall. Scott Richer

St. Mary Magdalene de’ Pazzi,
May 25

Born Catherine, Mary Magdalene de’ Pazzi was born into a prominent family in Florence in 1566. Rejecting her parents’ proposed suitors, she convinced her family of her religious vocation and at 17 became a Carmelite nun. Her biography, compiled by her confessor, gives a detailed account of her intense spiritual journey with its periods of desolation and ecstasy. Mary Magdalene had the gifts of prophecy and healing. She died in 1607 and her uncorrupted body is enshrined in the convent church.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

Our prayers are with all the young people who received the First Holy Communion this year. We have a total of 47 young people. Let us also extend our prayers and congratulate all the young people who received the sacrament of Confirmation this year. We have a total of 59 young people. God Bless you all.

ONE MINUTE MEDITATION – St. Philip Neri

Born in Florence in 1515, St. Philip Neri was known for his impulsiveness and sense of humour from a young age. Although he was in line to become a successful businessman, he abandoned his career for a life of prayer and study, spending much of his time giving spiritual direction to the youth. He later founded the Oratorians, where reading, singing, and charitable works were to be practiced. He is remembered for his humour and his joyful love of God. St Philip Neri is the patron of home missions, supported in Canada through the Catholic Missions In Canada. His feast day is May 25.

Marian Pilgrimage: ACN Canada and Deacon Brian Cordeiro are delighted to announce the launch of a bilingual (English and French) Marian pilgrimage which will run from October 25 to November 6, 2023. The price is $4,799. For more information, please call Deacon Brian Cordeiro at 514-467-2552 or by email at brian.cordeiro89@gmail.com.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Pope’s prayer Intention for May: We pray that Church movements and groups may rediscover their mission of evangelisation each day, placing their own charisms at the service of needs in the world.
