

COOKIE POLICY AD SPRAY DOMAIN

In order to make your visit to our website as convenient as possible, we use cookies to present our range of services.

These are small aggregates of text recorded locally in the temporary memory of your browser, and therefore in your computer, for variable periods of time depending on the need and generally between a few hours and a few years, with the exception of profiling cookies whose maximum duration is 12 months.

Through cookies it is possible to record in a semi-permanent way information about your preferences and other technical data that allow easier navigation and greater ease of use and effectiveness of the site. For example, cookies can be used to determine if a connection has already been made between your computer and our sites to highlight the news or keep the "login" information. To your guarantee, only the cookie stored on your computer is identified.

Types of cookies This site uses four different types of cookies.

1. Essential technical cookies These cookies are necessary for the proper functioning of the site. They allow the browsing of the pages, the sharing of our contents, the memorization of your access credentials to make faster the entry into the site and to keep active your preferences and credentials while browsing. Without these cookies we could not provide the services for which users access the site.

2. Statistical and performance cookies These cookies allow us to know how visitors use the site, to be able to evaluate and improve its functioning and to favor the production of content that best meets the information needs of our users. For example, let you know which pages are the most and least popular. They take into account, among other things, the number of visitors, the time spent on the site by the average user and how they arrive. In this way, we can know what works well and what to improve, as well as ensuring that the pages load quickly and are displayed correctly.

3. Cookies for user profiling and advertising targeting These cookies allow you to offer announcements related to the user and their respective interests. They are also used to limit the number of views of the same ad and to evaluate the effectiveness of advertising campaigns. They are inserted by Ad Spray S.r.l. by means of technical platforms that are partners in our advertising circuit and contribute to our investment in websites, allowing us to adequately finance the maintenance of services and their technological evolution. They can also be used to show the user relevant ads on other websites visited. The cookies actually set may change at any moment due to the technical strategies of advertisers and their technical representatives, therefore, we refer to the websites of these partners for further information on the subject of privacy and use of cookies.

4. Functional and profiling cookies of third parties This category includes both cookies provided by partners of Ad Spray S.r.l. and known to it, and cookies supplied by third parties not directly controlled or controllable by Ad Spray S.r.l. Cookies from our partners allow us to offer advanced features, as well as more information and personal features. This includes the ability to share content through social networks, to access videostreaming services and the CDN networks on which we host our content. These services are mainly provided by external operators hired or consciously integrated by Ad Spray Srl. If you have an account or if you use the services of such parties on other websites, they may be able to know that the user has visited our sites. The use of data collected by these external operators through cookies is subject to their privacy policies. These include cookies registered by the main social networks that allow you to share the articles of our sites and publicly express the appreciation for our work. Cookies not coming from partners of Ad Spray S.r.l., are cookies conveyed without the control of Ad Spray S.r.l., by third parties who have the opportunity to intercept the user while browsing even outside the sites Ad Spray S.r.l.. These cookies, typically of data profiling, are not directly controllable by Ad Spray S.r.l. that can not therefore guarantee on the use that third party owners make of the information collected.

5. Similar technologies In a very similar way our website uses services that use for example fingerprints, a technology similar to cookies that allows to save data in a different way.
