April 2016, Amsterdam University Press, 300 pages, ISBN 978 94 6298 105 8

Co-author with Gilbert Monod de Froideville

Although modern life grows increasingly casual, in many sectors, protocol still reigns supreme. The book offers an overview of its associated practices, including those found within the context of diplomatic relations and the business world. Focusing on a wide range of countries and cultures, the book covers topics like precedence, seating arrangements, flags, ceremonies, invitations, gifts and honours, and the roles of the protocol officer, guest and host. Throughout, influential diplomatic, business, and cultural figures share their own experiences with protocol around the world.
