JEFF GAGLIARDI

Jeff and his wife, Nanci, live in Longmont and have 3 grown children, Joshua, Kaela & Christopher, and 4 grandchildren (and another on the way!) He has lived in Boulder County for 46 years.

Jeff retired in 2015, but formerly made his living as an artist/illustrator/designer. He worked with several companies in the Boulder area as art director and creative director before starting his own firm. Some of his artwork has been exhibited at the Advent and Lent art shows through the Christos Collective.

Jeff has been a covenant partner for one year but has had connections with Grace Commons for 44 years. He is a member of a common space group, serves lunch for Annex students, volunteers for Lamb's Lunch and is the Prayer Coordinator for Men's Life.

Beside his faith, the arts and sciences have always been Jeff's passion. He loves DIY projects and has remodeled a few homes. He enjoys movies, books, travel and music but most of all he enjoys time with family.

MATT KOSCHMANN

Matt and his wife, Jen, have 2 children, Soren and Anders, and live in Superior. He has lived in Boulder County for 14 years.

He is a professor of organizational communication in the College of Media, Communication, and Information at the University of Colorado Boulder.

Matt has been involved with Grace Commons since 2012, and is active in Men's Life, served on the Mission Study Team and Annex advisory team, is a Lamb's Lunch volunteer, was involved with the Annex redevelopment project, and participated in small groups and WEDx.

Matt enjoys soccer, basketball, skiing, hiking, camping and reading

LINDSAY ROHAN

Lindsay and her husband, Kyle, have daughter, McKinley, and live in Erie. She is a Boulder County native.

Lindsay is a Pediatric Nurse Practitioner at Children's Hospital Colorado.

She was baptized at Grace Commons but officially became a covenant partner as an adult ten years ago.

Lindsay has been a middle and high school volunteer for the last several years. She joined the MOPS leadership team this year and has enjoyed finding creative ways to extend Jesus' love to believing and non-believing moms in Boulder County. Lindsay has completed the prayer class and Stephen Ministry training.

She loves to spend time outside with her family and enjoys hiking, biking, running and scuba diving.

BOB STOVER

Bob and his wife, Janelle, have lived in Boulder since 1986 and have 2 grown children, Mark in Ann Arbor, MI and Annie in Edmonds, WA.

The majority of Bob's career involved corporate finance responsibilities but most recently served as the First Presbyterian/Grace Commons Business Administrator until he retired.

He has been a covenant partner since 1988. Before joining the church staff he served on committees for Personnel, Student & Family and became an elder in 1996. As Business Administrator, Bob was the staff resource to Session, Trustees, Personnel, Stewardship, Budget, Building Committees and "other duties as assigned."

He enjoys most outdoor activities, particularly hiking. He was a runner for over 40 years until his body suggested it had endured enough. He and Janelle enjoy traveling domestically and internationally, but their favorite destination is wherever their grandchildren are with their parents.

JEN WILGER

Jen and her husband, Tom, live in Lafayette. They have 3 children, Micah, Jeremiah and Josie. She has lived in Boulder County for 31 years.

In 2011, Jen helped found Temple Grandin School, which provides a strength-based, supportive learning community for neurodiverse students in grades 6-12. She is currently the Executive Director. Prior to that she worked at First Presbyterian Preschool from 2000-2011. Jen has been a writer, editor and curriculum developer. She loves creating opportunities to help special kids of all ages discover and develop their passions.

As a covenant partner for 22 years, she has been a Sunday school teacher, kitchen manager, UMin core group leader, intern host family and is currently singing in the Glory of Christmas choir.

Jen enjoys cooking, baking, exploring new cities, 5K run/walks, hiking, snowshoeing, enjoying nature/outdoors, reading, writing and photography.
