VINEYARD NOTES

Cinsault grapes that came predominantly from the Swartland and Paarl areas. Harvested early, late January to mid February during the warm and healthy summer season to retain freshness and vibrant primary fruit.

WINEMAKING NOTES

Grapes crushed and left on the skins for a short amount of time, around 1-2 hours. Fermented in stainless steel tanks and racked off its primary/gross lees right after fermentation. Wine was stabilized and bottled at the end of March to be ready to ship mid-April.

TASTING NOTES

Dust off that surfboard, get out the cooler, add a bunch of ice, throw in some Summer Sessions Rosé, invite some friends, light a the BBQ and enjoy the liquid sunshine of this tasty Cinsault from SOUTH AFRICA that should make for a most refreshing beverage all season long.
