Distributor's notes

From Kiko Calvo, who's fresh approach to making Toro with Vino Bigardo for so many years now has a couple of special new wines to offer us. This is a single-vineyard "Pago de Fariñas" of 100 year old vines of organically grown Tinta de Toro (a style of Tempranillo). Hand harvested, native yeasts, and aged in a variety of different barricas for 15 months. Very limited production - only 3,000 bottles produced.

Vineyards are organically grown over sandstone, clay and limestone soils. Everything is hand harvested with spontaneous fermentation in old, neutral oak. Zero filtering or fining. Minimal to no sulfur used at bottling. Super crowd-pleasing, medium-bodied red, that you might never expect comes from Toro! Definitely the new wave, not heavy or extracted like so many others.
