

RESPIRATORY CLINICAL RESEARCH PHYSICIAN

Global Clinical Development

Reports to the Respiratory Area Lead

Based in France subsidiary in Bois Colombes, close to Paris

Geographic scope of responsibilities: Global

Position Assets:

- ❖ Respiratory Therapy area:
 - Booming market with the COVID-19 pandemic
 - Continuously growing market with ageing population, chronic conditions and environmental exposures.
- ❖ CHIESI:
 - Dedicated to Respiratory
 - Respiratory in-house pipeline & external partnerships
 - First mid-size pharmaceutical company to be B-Corp certified demonstrating its social and environmental commitment
 - Well-established, stable and independent company with a long-term growth strategy
 - Entrepreneurial culture and strong values giving a real meaning to day-to-day work.
- ❖ The Position :
 - Global responsibility within an international team to strengthen career in R&D
 - Benefits of a mid-size pharma: regular interaction with senior management and faster decision-making process
 - High level of responsibility and autonomy
 - Direct interactions with regulatory agencies (EMA and FDA)
 - Within the France subsidiary, human-sized and certified Great Place to Work France 2020.

Profile:

- ❖ Education: Medical Doctor Degree is a plus - or PharmD / PhD with clinical experience in respiratory, internal medicine, intensive care.
A background in pulmonary/respiratory is a plus.
- ❖ Experience: At least 5 years' experience in clinical research, Phase 1 to 3 :
 - * within the ethical pharmaceutical industry: preferably in Respiratory, Internal Medicine, Allergy
 - * or within a CRO if experience in respiratory clinical research
 - * or Hospital / Academic research in respiratory clinical research
- ❖ Experience within the Respiratory area is a plus.
- ❖ Languages: English fluent- French practice is a plus

⇒ Please Contact:

Dr Véronique Dugué, Giudicelli International Executive Search
vdugue@giudicelli-international.com
www.linkedin.com/in/veroniquedugue