Here is what our programme alumni have to say about the programme:

“You just have to ask the 'right' questions to bring the organisation to the place that they really want to be or desire. I think for me, coaching has been very strong in that. It was a learning experience, learning about yourself, learning from the other participants, the faculty, the course content. It's what I call, 360° learning.”

*David Bagenda
Group Strategy & Performance
Director, Diageo, East African Breweries Limited*

“Going through the course has been the most transformative experience in my executive career. Moving from being a subject matter expert to a fully inspirational leader. The best for me has been the deep introspection to know who I am”.

*Corine Mbiaketcha Nana,
Vice President & General Manager
East Africa, VISA*

“The Practitioner in Executive Coaching Programme has enabled me to reinvent myself in my new career as a leadership development consultant, using executive coaching as an effective tool that enables me to coach and facilitate leadership development programmes”.
