House Rules

Last updated: 11th February 2021

These house rules govern the use of our buildings and services by our members, their employees and guests.

For corporate members (also referred to as 'A members'), these house rules are incorporated into our membership terms and conditions and form part of your membership agreement.

If you are a B member (an employee of an A member), by accessing our building and receiving a membership card you agree to these house rules.

We may refuse entry to a member, their employee or guest for breach of our house rules without any liability. Furthermore we may terminate a membership for serious or persistent breach of these house rules. It is your responsibility to ensure that you are aware of the house rules and of the potential consequences for breach.

(a) Hours of Operation. Our hours of operation are set out on our website.

(b) Access and maintenance. We will do our best to maintain the spaces in clean and good functional condition for your benefit. However we are not responsible for damage beyond general wear and tear that is caused by you or your guests, and for this you will be liable, other than where such damage is due to our negligence or breach of these terms and conditions. We reserve the right for our employees and any other third party we choose to access all areas of Fisheries London Fields and other spaces at all times, including areas used by you, with or without notice to you. This may be for the purposes of maintenance, cleaning, safety, security, inspection or emergency (without limitation). We may remove or replace parts and/or may restrict access to certain parts of our spaces as we determine in our sole discretion.

(c) Membership cards and entry. We will issue a membership card to each individual A member and each B member specified in a corporate A member's office terms. Please ensure you have your membership card with you as, if you do not, we may refuse entry. If you lose your membership card, you must report it to us as soon as possible. We can arrange for a replacement card for a fee, which we will add to your invoice in the following month or deduct from your deposit (as appropriate).

(d) Guests.

- For security reasons we require all guests to sign in and out at reception every time they enter and leave the space.
- The number of guests you may invite into our space is limited to one guest per office or private desk member, unless guests are attending a meeting in one of our meeting rooms. Community desk members are not permitted to bring guests into the space unless they are attending a meeting in one of our meeting rooms. Please refer also to our rules on meeting rooms below regarding guest numbers at meetings.
- Guests may be in the building for up to 2 hours for free. Guests are not permitted to work from an office, private desk or community desk during their attendance save for as referred to in these rules.

- A guest, as with any non-member, is welcome to purchase a short-term pass if they wish to use our space to work. Any such short-term passes are subject to our current pricing and availability.
- You must accompany your guests at all times save for where such guests are attending a meeting in a booked meeting room to which you are not party.
- You are responsible for any guest that you sign in.
- Furthermore, by signing in, each guest agrees to our house rules.
- We may at our sole discretion refuse a guest's entry to the space and we do not have to provide a reason. We reserve the right to evict a guest who has disturbed one or more of our members or otherwise breached these house rules.

(e) Conduct. The Fisheries member community is built on respect. Whilst at our space, you may not do anything that is or might be illegal, in breach of these terms and conditions or the house rules. Furthermore you agree to refrain from any behaviour that is or might be hazardous, discriminatory, inflammatory, disrespectful, disruptive, offensive or otherwise does not foster a positive and professional co-working environment. If we determine that you, your employees and/or your guests have engaged in conduct not in accordance with or in the spirit of this paragraph, we may evict your employees and/or guests and in our sole discretion suspend or terminate your membership subject to and in accordance with paragraph 14 (Cancellation and termination). If you witness or are subject to any such behaviour, please notify us immediately. This is a material term.

(f) Meeting rooms.

- Meeting rooms are charged by the hour.
- All up to date pricing for meeting rooms can be found on the member portal, please speak to reception if you are unsure.
- Meeting rooms must be booked via the member portal or, where it is not available, reception.
- We will invoice you for a meeting room booking in the month following the month of the booking.
- You may cancel a meeting room booking up to 2 hours prior to the start of your meeting without being charged.
- Cancellations within 2 hours of the start time will be charged at the full (100%) booking price.
- For a meeting you are hosting in one of our meeting rooms you may invite as many guests as can be seated in that meeting room.

(g) Printing. You have access to printing, scanning and copying facilities at our spaces. Black and white A4 and A3 printing is free of charge, subject to reasonable use (which we define as no more than 300 A4 or 150 A3 (or a combination) pages per B member (or per A member, where the A member is an individual) per month. All up to date pricing for printing can be found on the member portal or speak to reception for rates.

(g) Personal property. Please think carefully about what you bring to our spaces as we will not be liable for the loss, theft of, or damage to your personal property or that of your guests.

(h) Communications and your details. As a member, you will receive emails from us about your membership, offers and promotions, events and other updates. We may also send messages to you via the message board in the member portal. Further information about how and when we may contact you can be found in our privacy policy. You will notify us of any changes to your contact information, in particular (but not limited to) your email address, telephone number and home address.

(i) Fair use. As our spaces are shared working spaces with some shared services and facilities, we expect you to respect, and ensure that your employees and guests respect, other members (and their employees and guests) by using the services and facilities fairly.

(j) Illegal drugs/substances/items. You, your employees and your guests are not permitted to purchase, attempt to purchase, use, ingest, possess, sell or otherwise distribute (or attempt to sell or distribute) illegal drugs or other substances or attempt to do any of the same from any member or guest or member of staff while in any of our spaces or in the immediate vicinity thereof. If we find that you or your guest has breached this rule, we will remove you and/or your guest from the space and will terminate the membership in question. In addition, you and your guests are prohibited from purchasing, selling, using or possessing any object which is illegal or offensive while in one of our spaces or in the immediate vicinity thereof. If we become aware of any such object we will confiscate it, remove you and/or your guest from the space, in our sole discretion suspend or terminate your membership. We will notify the police or relevant authorities, as required or appropriate. This is a material term.

(k) Intellectual property. You may not use the names, logos, colours, trademarks, service marks, photographs, trade dress, pictures, illustrations, graphics or other identifying features of Fisheries (or any space, if different) for any purpose (including without limitation in any communications, marketing, advertising or other promotional materials) without our prior written approval. You may refer to yourself as a member of Fisheries on your social media channels, blog or for other non-commercial purposes.

(l) Furniture and set-up.

- You may not make changes to, or to the configuration of, the furniture we provide as part of your membership without prior written permission from us.
- You may not make changes to any electrical or IT connection without prior written permission from us.
- You will maintain the office, private desk or community desk (as applicable) and any communal space you use in good condition, and you will notify us immediately in the event of damage.
- You are financially responsible for any damage that you, your employees or your guests cause to your office, private desk or community desk (as applicable) and any communal space.

(m) Pets. You will not bring dogs or other animals into the premises without prior written consent from us, with the exception of guide/hearing dogs. If we do grant permission for your dog or other pet to be in our building, we will require proof of vaccinations including kennel cough. We are within our rights to suspend this privilege at any time with immediate effect without providing a reason for doing so.

(n) Registered office. You will not use our building address as registered office address (including for any associated or group companies) without our prior written consent.

(o) Smoking. Smoking and vaping are not permitted anywhere in our buildings.

(p) Health and safety. You are responsible to ensure that you, your employees and guests are aware of the health and safety procedures, and take appropriate care, in our buildings. Please refer to our health and safety notices displayed around our buildings or speak to reception to make sure you understand the health & safety risks and procedures for our buildings.

(q) Accidents. If you, or your employee or guest has an accident or suffers any injury at our building, you must report this to us as soon as possible.

(r) CCTV. For safety and security reasons, we use CCTV in our buildings. Please refer to our privacy policy for further information.

(s) Mail and packages. For private desk and office memberships we will receive mail and packages on your behalf if you have items sent to The Fisheries, 1 Mentmore Terrace, London E8 3PN. We provide this service during regular business hours only. We accept no responsibility for damaged or lost items.

10.2 The provisions of this paragraph 10 are not exhaustive and are supplemented by our house rules, which can be viewed on our website and are subject to change.
