ADORATION

The Real Presence

The shepherds looked with wonder on the Savior whom the angels had announced. The Magi were the first to worship Him and offer Him the homage of public adoration at Bethlehem just as they had been His first apostles at Jerusalem.

What is it they saw in the stable, in the crib, in the Child? What did they see? LOVE! An unspeakable love; the true love of God for man; God impelled by His love to become poor so as to be the friend and brother of the poor; God becoming weak so as to comfort the weak and the forsaken; God suffering so as to prove His love. That is what the Magi saw.

The adoration of the Magi was a homage of faith and a tribute of love to the Incarnate Word; such though to be our Eucharistic adoration.

"You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

Make a New Year's resolution to spend an hour with Jesus each week in Adoration.
