FACILITATORS
HAVE THESE 5
SKILLS

prepared for any and everything

The best facilitators have a plan B and C and D. They've done their research, they know who is A good facilitator makes everyone feel a sense of ease, includes everyone and democratises the process.

They make the agenda and guidelines clear

Strong facilitators communicate effectively and create clarity - rather than expecting words to mean the same thing to everyone across the board a strong facilitator explains how this should look by giving concrete examples.

They're like a business
Mary Poppins

They have all the tools, all the equipment, everything that anyone might need to convey their point. Good facilitators are able to make conversing easier so everyone on the team feels heard.

They manage time like a referee

Not only do strong facilitators manage time incredibly well, they make sure that no one has anxiety about if there is enough time.

Facilitators take this worry upon themselves so the team can focus on generating ideas.
