

STSA Documentary Credit Officer

SEPT - OCT 2021

PRESENTATION

Switzerland is an internationally recognised centre of expertise for commodity trading. The 550+ companies based in Switzerland, located in a unique trading hub, account for over 35'000 direct jobs.

In this vibrant and professional environment, training is becoming all the more a prerequisite. Experts responsible for logistics and operations are key players in the industry's success. With increased international competition and challenges faced by the commodity trading activity, education & training have become a critical asset to succeed in today's industry.

For a long time, Documentary Credits have been and remain key financial instruments underpinning the international trade. Whether it is for the buyer or the exporter, these instruments bring security, reliability and efficiency while allowing the banks involved to hold a decisive role in the transaction cycle.

In a daily basis, the Documentary Credit Officer is at the forefront of individual transaction financial executions. Whether working with a Bank or in Trade Finance, Import / Export, Procurement Department, a good technical understanding of Documentary Credit and other instruments will be a key success factor within the international trade workspace.

This programme is constituted of the 4 Modules of the STSA Operator's Certificate that are fundamentals for junior Credit Officers. The STSA Operator's Certificate has been designed by a working group of experts directly active in renowned commodity trading companies and within major banks active in trade finance.

"Education contributes to raising awareness about all the processes and operations involved in commodities trading and provide participants with an in-depth understanding of the challenges faced in daily activities."

Florence Schürch, Secretary General, STSA

AUDIENCE

- Junior Trade Finance Officers and Documentary Credit Officers in the early stages of their career in a commodity trading company or in a bank who want to accelerate their training process and fully grasp all angles of this complex profession which is in constant evolution.
- Young professionals considering a career change and interested in moving into the commodity sector (banks active in Trade Finance or trading companies).
- Fresh graduates seeking to acquire new skills and speed up their recruitment process.

OBJECTIVES

Our main goals include meeting the requirements of commodity trading companies and banks active in Trade Finance by offering them a specific training programme to accelerate the training process for their junior Documentary Credit Officers.

This practice-oriented Certificate aims at enabling the participants to:

- Acquire a good understanding of the techniques and their implementation.
- Develop a mindset and practical toolbox which should contribute to add value to their intervention beyond the execution level.

More specifically, this programme aims to give participants a solid understanding of:

- The parties to documentary credit transactions and their roles and obligations
- The specific terminology
- The Contracts
- The Documents (invoices, Certificates of Origin, LOI, B/L, SWB, RWB, CMR, etc.)
- The Credit lines
- The different types of securities (guarantees, LCs, cash collection, etc.)
- The instruments of communication (swift, telex, Trafec, etc.)
- The Guarantees
- Documentary credits – types, characteristics and uses
- Rules and trade terms, including UCP 600, Incoterms 2010 (ISP98, ISBP 745 and URR 725)
- Risk issues, including types of risks, control and possible mitigations

We expect that, through this training, participants will ultimately be best placed to rapidly gain in experience, making the most out of the various real-life cases that they will be confronted with.

Teaching Format

The Certificate is composed of 4 modules all taught in English. The modules take place on Friday evenings and Saturday mornings, so as not to interfere with the professional activity of the participants, and to give them enough time to assimilate and eventually practice what has been learnt in class.

Some pre-reading, preparation, case studies or homework may be required, depending on the teachers' recommendations and will be communicated upon admission to the course.

The lectures are given by industry experts from the commodity trading and banking sectors, with inputs from guest speakers to give further depth and various perspectives.

"We understand that participants often have demanding professional and family obligations; however, to successfully obtain the certificate, you will need to be fully engaged and ready to face significant preparation work."

Silviane Chatelain, Education & Training Manager, STSA

Evaluation

The award of the Documentary Credit Officer Certificate is based on attendance and successful completion of exams. However, your full commitment and engagement will be required to obtain the Certificate.

Each module is subject to an evaluation. The candidates are required to attend and participate in a minimum of 80% of the programme sessions in order to obtain the Certificate. Any absences must be appropriately justified.

An overall average of 4.0 (out of 6) must be achieved in order to graduate, and no more than one mark between 3.0 and 4.0 will be accepted. A mark lower than 3.0 will automatically disqualify the participant from obtaining the Certificate. The participant may re-take the failed module/course during the following intake at his/her cost. Only one opportunity to retake the module will be given. If the participant fails more than 1 module in one session he/she will be automatically disqualified. Any participant caught cheating or plagiarising will be automatically disqualified without appeal.

All exams and assignments must be completed in English.

FAQ

Can I be accepted even if I do not have any particular certification?

No certification as such is requested but a strong motivation and a good command of the English language are necessary.

Can you help me acquire a work permit?

Unfortunately no. This is an educational programme and STSA does not provide this kind of service.

Do I need to take my laptop to class?

Presentations and documents will be uploaded on the STSA Learning Platform and you will need an electronic device to view them. It can be a tablet or a computer.

Will you help me find a job?

No. The purpose of the Certificate is for the participants to grow professionally and attain competences in documentary credit. It is not STSA's purpose or objective to assist the participants in finding a job.

Nevertheless, participants of STSA classes considerably enhance their employability and several employers look for their juniors within the STSA's alumni pool.

When I obtain my Certificate, will I be accepted to pursue the Master or the Diploma also set up by STSA?

No, acceptance for the Master or Diploma is subject to a specific set of rules set by the University of Geneva.

However, many participants of STSA programmes have decided to further develop their skills by following additional STSA classes or academic programmes offered by the University of Geneva (DAS in Commodity Trading or Master of Science in Commodity Trading).

Can I meet STSA representatives before the courses?

Yes if necessary, but it would be preferable to schedule any such meeting in advance.

What happens if I cannot attend one course?

It will be your responsibility to obtain the presentations and the notes taken during the course from another student and to coordinate with the trainer responsible for the module to pass the exam.

Under no circumstances can courses be recorded.

ABOUT STSA

STSA was created as GTSA in 2006 by the main actors of the Commodity Trading community in Geneva. In 2008, it extended its reach to the Lake Geneva Region. In 2014, it became STSA – a national Association for Trading and Shipping in Switzerland – overseeing the regional chapters of Zug and Lugano, and representing more than 190 members encompassing large, medium and small entities.

The Association has become renowned for its successful professional programmes such as the STSA Operator's Certificate and the Commodity Trading Fundamentals. In response to the industry's requests, STSA has put in place three innovative certificates: the STSA Commodity Trading Risk Analyst, the STSA Business & Human Rights and the STSA Documentary Credit Specialist.

In parallel, STSA also organises educational programmes such as the Master of Science in Commodity Trading, and the Diploma in Advanced Studies in Commodity Trading. Both programmes have been created in partnership with the University of Geneva and have been running since 2008 with an increasing level of recognition.

In 2019, STSA Learning has been awarded the eduQua Label. The first Swiss qualification providing quality assurance for continuing education and training. This certification is a mark of recognition of the high quality of STSA Learning's education and training programmes. It was obtained after an in-depth evaluation process and an in-house audit, to ensure that our methods are fully transparent and in accordance with its standards.
