

This year, we are going to go 3D for Earth Day by using a program called Ozzo! Ozzo is similar to Zoom but was created for social interactions rather than meetings. It enables you to move around freely in a 3D environment, which encourages smaller, more natural connections within larger groups of people." No login is required. Please take a few minutes to read the guidelines for using Ozzo and take the 1-minute tutorial before the event on April 22nd.

Please email me if you would like assistance prior to the meeting:
