

APPENDIX IV. IFC Code of Conduct

Article I. Purpose

The purpose of the Code of Conduct is to provide a guideline of proper practices for members of the Interfraternity Council with regard to interactions with other chapters than their own. It is also meant to serve as a means by which chapters and their members are held accountable for their interactions, both positive and negative, with other chapters.

Article II. Code of Conduct

Chapter members are to conduct themselves as gentlemen at all times. Actions committed by members specifically towards members of different chapters and/or their property will not be tolerated. Such actions include, but are not limited to:

1. Vandalism of personal or chapter property
2. Theft of personal or chapter property
3. Damage to personal or chapter property
4. Physical or verbal harassment
5. Fighting
6. Any statement, verbal, written, or otherwise that is slanderous in nature, made with the express purpose of damaging another individual or chapter.
7. Culturally insensitive conduct
8. Conduct unbecoming of a gentleman

Article III. Enforcement

It is the responsibility of the chapter to ensure its members hold themselves to the aforesaid rules. Any violation of the Code of Conduct by a chapter member will fall upon the chapter itself, and will result in a Standards Committee hearing.
