And when at last he snuggled down, Oscar always said the same thing.

"I wish there were more bears on our side of the mountain. I wish there was another bear who liked the same sort of games as me!"

Playtime

In this part of the booklet you are going to read about some of the things that the children at Green Park School did to change their playtimes and make them more fun.

The children put up a display in the entrance hall of their school to show visitors all the exciting changes that had been going on.

The Governors of our school gave us some money to spend on making the playground a more friendly place, where all the children can play happily.

They asked the whole school to decide together what they thought the best ideas would be for spending the money.
