PhD & Postdoc Mobility Program

Overview

The PhD and Postdoc mobility program is aimed at existing PhD students and postdocs in the ELLIS/ELISE partner network who want to initiate a collaboration with a Fellow or Member at another site. To apply for a mobility grant, the following two conditions must be fulfilled:

1. You are doing a PhD/postdoc at one of the ELISE partner institutions (cf. 'ELISE Membership' infra) OR you are an ELLIS PhD student or postdoc (cf. 'ELLIS Membership' infra; `http://ellis.eu/phd-postdoc`).
2. The exchange is supported by two advisors in the ELLIS network: the advisor from the home institution, and the advisor from the host institution who will supervise the exchange. Both advisors must be Members of the ELLIS network (`http://ellis.eu/members`), and at least one of them an ELLIS Fellow/Scholar (`http://ellis.eu/fellows`) or Unit Faculty (`http://ellis.eu/units`).
