

FDA Labeling Requirements for Food Allergens

Allergen Labeling Requirements

- Allergen declared on the Principal Display Panel (PDP) or Information Panel (IP)
- Included the food source of a major food allergen in parentheses following the ingredient's name. (or)
- Used a "Contains" statement immediately after or next to the list of ingredients to list major allergens. (or)
- Used an advisory "May Contain <allergen>" statement if there's risk for cross-contamination in facilities containing allergens.
- Listed the specific allergen from the three major food groups i.e., nuts, fish, and crustacean shellfish.
- Type size of declaration is no less than 1/16".
- No obscuring vignettes, graphics or printed information.

Easily Approve FDA-Compliant Product Labels

Ensure regulatory compliance & release error-proof cosmetic product labels.

Give your teams the power of smooth collaboration!

Start Free Trial

