

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road

*And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room*

Why cry for a soul set free?

*Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.*

MaryJo Reavis, 97, passed away on May 17, 2022, in Forsyth, Montana.

MaryJo was born July 30, 1924, to Ella Cathrine (Rock) Westman and Enoch Michael Westman in Sheridan, Wyoming. Raised on the Westman homestead in Decker, Montana, she attended Waddel Creek school through the 8th grade. She then went on to attend Holy Name Catholic School and graduated from Sheridan High School in 1943. MaryJo had always wanted to be a nurse so after high school she went to work for Eventide Nursing Home. She was called away to return to the Westman ranch to care for her ailing mother and stayed on to care for the ranch as well. MaryJo married Joe H Reavis on February 7, 1964, at the St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Buffalo, Wyoming. In 1968 they welcomed their daughter Joella.

MaryJo was a lifelong member of the Holy Name Catholic Church. She learned to fly a Cessna plane and took her Willeys Jeep all over the country. She loved dancing, hunting, sewing, and scrap booking. She had many albums of her years growing up and spending time with the generations of hunters that would visit the ranch.

MaryJo is predeceased by her husband, Joe, her brothers; Victor and Vincent, her parents, step grandchild; Mike and many more extended families. She is survived by her cousin Virginia Alderman, her daughter, Joella and her grandchildren; Megan Brastrup, Colton Brastrup, Maverick Brastrup, Quinton Dirette, Ashley Dirette and Travis Dirette, her step grandchildren; Pat Reardon, Louise Horsley, Tammy Reardon and DJ Reardon.
