

Hawaii Waterman Hall of Fame Nominations

Individuals are inducted into the Hawaii Waterman Hall of Fame for their sustained outstanding contribution to the sport, and their international, national, and local accomplishment and recognition. The Hawaii Waterman Hall of Fame honors those remarkable legends within our islands' water sports community whose lifetime of contributions have inspired and perpetuated the unique connection and love between our kama`aina and the ocean.

We encourage you to nominate an individual who has been an exceptional contributor to our ocean communities.

HAWAII WATERMAN HALL OF FAME

FACT SHEET

PURPOSE: The Hawaii Waterman Hall of Fame was created to honor those remarkable legends within our islands' water sports community whose lifetime of contributions have inspired and perpetuated the unique connection and love between our kama`aina and the ocean.

SELECTION: Nominations may be submitted by an individual or organization. All nominations should include a completed nomination form that is provided in this packet and two (2) letters of recommendation from people who have worked with the nominee. There may be up to five (5) inductees per year.

*If you have already submitted a nomination in the prior three years, there is no need for a new nomination of the same person. All nominations will remain in the consideration pool for three years.

CRITERIA: The criterion used for induction are as follows:

- Keiki o ka `aina / Keiki o ke kai
- Sustained outstanding contribution to the sport and the community
- International, national, AND local accomplishment and recognition

*Note that inductees must be present at the HWHOF event in August (traditionally) on Oahu to be inducted. Sometimes, nominations remain in the pool due to inavailability.

PROCESS: Nominations for the current year should be submitted no later than March 31st of the current year, but sooner is better. Nominations will remain in consideration for three years in total unless the individual is inducted or the nomination is withdrawn by the nominator. Supportive nominee information is encouraged each year to update a prior nomination and can be submitted to info@dukefoundation.org.
