

RADICAL COLLABORATIVE CANVAS

SHARING THE RADICAL PURPOSE WE SEEK TO EXPRESS

Now that we have a context, we share our radical needs with others so that they can better understand who we are at our essence and what innately motivates us. Focus on the needs that have brought you to this context.

IDENTIFYING THE NEEDS OF THOSE WE SEEK TO IMPACT

SHARING EVERYONES VIEW OF THE CONTEXT WE ARE IN

CO-CREATING COLLABORATIVE TOOLS

We are now ready to discuss the tools required to support our innate and practical needs and help us to make our impact. Tools include things such as software as well as collaborative tools that guide our interactions with one another including how we communicate, make decisions, make agreements, and keep our commitments. These collaborative tools replace the old imposed rules of the force paradigm.

WE ▶ COLLABORATION

HOW CAN WE HELP SERVE EACH OTHER'S NEEDS IN THIS CONTEXT?

DISCOVERING OUR COLLABORATION NEEDS

We now know one another's needs and the needs of those we seek to impact. Now we discuss how to collaborate in a way that meets everyone's needs. Recognizing that we each have a radical purpose to express, we share what we need from others and listen to what they need from us in order to make our best collective impact.
