¹American Railcar Industries adopted proxy access upon reincorporating in North Dakota.

²KSW is now privately held. Arch Coal filed for Chapter 11 in January 2016. VCA is being acquired in 2017 by MMI Holdings, Inc.

³Enterprise Financial Services and Nabors Industries adopted proxy access policies. Following its 2017 annual meeting, Nabors amended its policy to allow up to 20 holders of 3% of the shares for three years to nominate one director. Previously, Nabors had a 5% ownership threshold and did not permit share aggregation. It also eased the vote requirement for renomination from 33% for three annual meetings to 25% for two annual meetings. It will count recalled shares on loan in the ownership threshold.

⁴Kilroy Realty amended its bylaw on Jan. 30, 2017 to reduce the ownership threshold from 5% to 3%, increase the aggregation limit from 10 to 20 shareholders, clarify that two or more funds meeting certain requirements count as one shareholder, and count loaned shares if they can be recalled on five days' notice.

⁵Apple amended its bylaw on Dec. 13, 2016 to include callable loaned shares, eliminate minimum voting requirement for renomination, limit the circumstances under which the maximum number of candidates is reduced, extended the timeframe for candidates to provide info to the company, and limited board discretion in interpreting the bylaw.

⁶Cabot Oil & Gas amended its bylaw on July 27, 2016, to reduce the ownership threshold from 5% to 3%, increase the group aggregation from 10 to 20 shareholders, provide that two or more funds under common management and investment control be treated as one shareholder, include loaned shares if they are callable within five business days, and remove the one-year post-meeting holding requirement.

⁷Following their 2015 annual meetings, CF Industries Holdings, Marathon Oil and Priceline Group revised their 5%/3-year proxy access bylaws to conform more closely to the shareholder proposal.

⁸Cheniere Energy amended its bylaw on Sep. 15, 2016 to count funds under common management as one shareholder and eliminate the minimal 25% voting requirement for access candidates to be renominated. ISS had recommended against the governance & nominating committee members at the 2016 annual meeting for inadequately responding to a 2015 majority vote on a shareholder proxy access proposal.

⁹Cloud Peak Energy's 2015 management proposal (5%/3 years, single holder, 10% of board) was rejected in favor of the shareholder proposal. Cloud Peak adopted a 3/3/20/20 bylaw on Oct. 20, 2015. It amended the bylaw on May 2, 2016, after ISS recommended against its governance committee members for not adequately responding to the 2015 majority vote on the shareholder proposal. The amendment raised the board seat cap from 20% to 25%, removed the 20-shareholder limit on group aggregations, and removed all of the secondary provisions that ISS deemed overly restrictive.

¹⁰Dun & Bradstreet amended its bylaw on Feb. 23, 2017 to raise the aggregation limit from 20 to 35 shareholders.

¹¹Flowserve amended its bylaw on Aug. 11, 2016 to reduce the ownership threshold from 5% to 3%.

¹⁹Northrop Grumman amended its bylaw on Feb. 17, 2016, to expand permissible third-party compensation of director nominees, providing that it may not exceed the total annual compensation paid to company directors and may include the reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred in connection with board candidacy.

²⁰NVR amended its bylaw on March 17, 2016 to reduce the ownership threshold from 5% to 3% and to include recallable loaned shares.

²¹Oshkosh amended its bylaw on Sep. 13, 2016 to reduce the ownership threshold from 5% to 3%, eliminate a one-year post-meeting holding requirement, and eliminate the minimal 25% voting support for the renomination of an access candidate.

²²PayPal Holdings adopted proxy access upon being spun off from eBay in July 2015. It amended its bylaw on May 24, 2017 to raise the aggregation limit from 15 to 20 shareholders.

²³Pioneer Natural Resources amended its bylaw on May 19, 2016 to eliminate a one-year post-meeting holding period.

²⁴QUALCOMM amended its bylaw on July 11, 2016 to add a two-director minimum to the board seat cap, eliminate the one-year post-meeting holding, eliminate the minimal 25% voting support for the renomination of an access candidate, eliminate the two-year freezeout on a nominator whose candidate was elected to the board, and remove the provision that an access director nominated by the board counts against the permitted number of access nominees.

²⁵Regency Centers amended its bylaw on April 21, 2016 to allow 20 holders to aggregate their shares. Previously, no aggregation was allowed.

²⁶SBA Communications amended its bylaw on Jan. 12, 2017, to reduce the ownership threshold from 5% to 3%, eliminate the cap on group aggregations, increase the number of access nominees from 20% to 25% of the board, reduce the threshold for renomination from 25% to 20% voting support and the look-back from three to two years, eliminate restrictions on using shares on loan to meet the ownership threshold, eliminated the prohibition on third-party compensation for access candidates, and eliminate the prohibition on the availability of proxy access when there is a proxy fight unless the latter is for a majority of the board.

²⁷United Natural Foods amended its bylaw on Sep. 3, 2016 to add a two-director minimum to the board seat cap and expand the period for recalling loaned shares from three to five business days.

²⁸United Therapeutics amended its bylaw on Feb. 2, 2017 to require disclosure of third-party compensation for candidacy or service on the board.

²⁹Subject to shareholder approval at the 2017 annual meeting.

³⁰BorgWarner amended its bylaw on July 26, 2016 to lower the ownership threshold from 5% to 3%, increase nominating groups from 10 to 25 shareholders, and allow for a two-director minimum.

³¹Exelon had adopted a 5% bylaw in 2015. A management proposal passed in 2016.

³²L3 Technologies amended its bylaw on Dec. 7, 2016 to allow for a two-director minimum, remove the requirement that one member of the nominating group own 1% of the stock, decrease the minimum voting support for renomination from 25% to 15%, and remove the one-year post-meeting holding period.
