

FEAR is FAITH That's Peter'd Out 1.0

The car radio butts in with a bulletin: “A mental patient has escaped Western State Hospital near Memphis. Take no chances. He is extremely dangerous.”

I'm only 12 at this time, on a fishing junket with our neighbor, Mr. Carter, and his brother. That breaking news sobers our mood as we pull off of a dirt road a few steps from a one-lane bridge that spans our destination. Juggling poles and tackle boxes, we gingerly skid down the high bank.

Moments later twilight's eerie hush is pierced by hideous moans from beyond the bridge. I scoot closer to the grown-ups. A few yards away a shadowy figure looms, then wades midstream past us, arms swinging gorilla-style until his groans fade from earshot. If I'd never known it before, this easily ranks as my first taste of 100 proof fright.

What do we fear? Failure, rejection, joblessness, illness, crime, loneliness, aging, death, the hereafter, the unknown. Fear can hover like an angry cloud or strike like a lightning bolt. Doctors say 90% of patients come in due to fear. How does the Great Physician diagnose it and prescribe a remedy? Let's read Mark 4:35-41 (p. 893, GNB).

“Jesus, Take The Wheel!”

Baptized by cousin John, Jesus drops His carpentry tools, recruits a dozen interns and begins doing miracles and teaching about the kingdom of God. Crowds follow. Bone-tired, He boards a boat and tells His men to “Shove off!”

Night has fallen on the Sea of Galilee. Suddenly a fierce storm engulfs them, swamping their vessel. Meanwhile, the Lord is aft, catching some z's. Scared silly and irked at Jesus' indifference, Peter, James, John and His other disciples rouse Him. "Teacher, we'll die out here if You don't save us! Don't you care?"

Jesus stirs, calmly surveys the situation and speaks to the storm as you might reprimand your family's Fido: "Settle down!" Like flipping a switch, wind and waves vanish, to the astonishment of His panicky passengers.

"Faith Your Fears"

The abrupt halt of this howling tempest terrified the men. It was s-s-o s-s-supernatural! They must be mumbling, "Did you see that? He even rules the weather!" These gnarly fishermen had seen Jesus feed 20,000 people from a mere handful of fish and bread, but now this!

This frightening cruise had turned their faith inside out. Faith believes something good will happen. Fear believes the reverse. The Bible defines faith as "confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see" (Hebrews 11:1). When we forget that God is in control, our trust in Him peters out and turns into fear.

Today Satan, our enemy, is on a jihad to "kill, steal and destroy" (John 10:10). Before sin polluted God's pristine planet, there were no terrors, manmade or otherwise to fear.

DISCUSS: Why would God allow things that breed fear?

The Master of wind and waves knows that real leaders ask the right question at the right moment. His was "Why are you afraid?" Stranded with such an obvious answer, they were sucker-punched by Jesus' follow-up: "Have you no faith?" Fear fills a faith vacuum. Faith erases our fears.

Earlier Jesus had told His mates not to fret about what might happen to them, about what they'd eat or wear. After all, His Father feeds the birds and knows when each one falls. Jesus' next question iced it: "Can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your life" (Matthew 6:25-27)?

DISCUSS: Describe a current situation in which you're wrestling with the choice to fear or to trust.

The Boys In The Boat

The late Ray Stedman finds two trustworthy lifelines in this account: "(1) Your boat will not sink when the Master of ocean and earth and sky is in it. (2) The storm won't last forever." Fear ignores these facts. Faith rests on them ... and may even catch a few z's while waiting out the storm.

Have you flunked God's faith finals? If so, He won't expel you (Romans 11:29). When your faith peters out, He just keeps repeating the test 'til you trust Him (Romans 8:28-29).

God knew David would level Goliath, that Daniel would survive a lions' den, that Jesus would bring Lazarus back to life. In each case fear could have triumphed, but victory is assured when we rely on God's strength, not our own. As Paul puts it, "God hasn't given us a spirit of fear but of power, love and a sound mind" (2 Timothy 1:7).

With power, love and a sound mind, how will you defeat fear? Let's read Ephesians 6:10-13 (p. 1065), Romans 1:16 (p. 1016), 1 Corinthians 2:16 (p. 1032), Philipians 2:5-11 (p. 1067) and Romans 8:35-39 (p. 1023).

“What, Me Worry?”

Many voices are trying to instill fear in all of us today. When you know who God is, when you trust Him and His promises, you have absolutely nothing to fear, not even fear itself!

Jesus is asking you today, “What are you afraid of? Have you no faith?” Here’s good news: He’ll even GIVE you the faith to trust Him in life and in death (Ephesians 2:8-9). If you haven’t placed your trust in Christ’s love for you and in His sacrifice for your sins, do it today, do it now. If you already have, then thank Him for His unequalled gift.

Joseph to his brothers: “Don’t be afraid; I can’t put myself in the place of God. You plotted evil against me, but God turned it into good, in order to preserve the lives of many people who are alive today because of what happened. You have nothing to fear. I will take care of you and your children.’ So he reassured them with kind words that touched their hearts” (Genesis 50:19-21).

“Be merciful to me, O God, because I am under attack; my enemies persecute me all the time. All day long my opponents attack me. There are so many who fight against me. When I am

Your Father in heaven knows that you need all these things. Instead, be concerned above everything else with the Kingdom of God and with what he requires of you, and he will provide you with all these other things. So do not worry about tomorrow; it will have enough worries of its own. There is no need to add to the troubles each day brings" (Matthew 6:31-34).

"So do not be afraid of people. ... Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather be afraid of (be in awe of) God who can destroy both body and soul in hell. For only a penny you can buy two sparrows, yet not one sparrow falls to the ground without your Father's consent. As for you, even the hairs of your head have all been counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth much more than many sparrows" (Matthew 10:26-31)!
