

We are looking for a full-time job in the area

MARKETING /SOCIAL MEDIA (w/m/d)

We are WeStyle. A young start-up, just flying under the radar. Our mission is the revolution of the beauty industry.

We make it possible for every beautician and all other aesthetes in this industry to realize their dream of independence and to have more money in their wallets in the end. This allows our customers to concentrate completely on what they love about their job.

People are at the centre of all our activities, whether as customer or employee.

We are creatives, analysts, techies and much more... Together we are stronger and together we create things with passion, humour and fun. In our multidisciplinary team, we strongly believe in flat hierarchies.

Annex

Thank you for your interest in working for our company. The data protection of all persons who are involved in our company is particularly important to us. This, of course, also applies to your application procedure. In the following, we explain how we handle your data and what options you have if, for example, you wish to have it deleted.

By sending us your application, you agree that we may collect, process and use your data for the purpose of processing your application.

Access to your data is granted to the responsible personnel department, as well as to the management and the head of the department for which your position is intended. We assure that we only grant third parties access to your data within the framework of the legal provisions as well as a secure handling of the data by contractual obligations of the third party and safety checks on a regular basis.

In your application, you have the opportunity to apply for a specific position or to apply on your own initiative for a position that matches your skills profile. If you choose the latter option, you give us permission to save your data for a period of two years and to contact you in the event of a suitable position for you. You have the possibility to view or update your data at any time. After these two years you can restart the period by giving a new consent and by updating your data. If we do not receive your consent, you do not need to do anything else and we will automatically delete your data.

Independent of this, you can block your data at any time and withdraw your application. In this case, or if you have applied for a specific position and unfortunately were not considered for the position, your data will be kept for another three months.

It is entirely up to you which data you provide. In addition to the required mandatory data, you also have the option of voluntarily providing us with additional data. Please do not provide us information on specific personal data, such as ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, health or sex life. If, nevertheless, you provide such information we will not take it into account, even though you agree to the collection and processing of such data in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

If you are hired, your data will be added to your personnel file as an employee.

If you have any questions or require additional information, you are welcome to contact our personnel department at Friedrichstraße 123, 10117 Berlin at the e-mail address jobs@westyle.group. We will answer you as soon as possible or, if you wish, we will call you back.
