This document is intended for educational purposes only and should not be construed as investment advice. This document may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements are those that predict or describe future events or trends and that do not relate solely to historical matters. Actual results could and likely will differ, sometimes materially, from those projected or anticipated. Cook Street is not undertaking any obligation to update or revise any forward looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. You should not take any statements regarding past trends as a representation those trends or activities will continue in the future. Accordingly, you should not put undue reliance on these statements.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results and every investment may lose money. No guarantees or assurances are or can be made as to performance. Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk. The investment return and principal value of securities will fluctuate based on a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, the type of investment, the amount and timing of the investment, changing market conditions, currency exchange rates, stability of financial and other markets, and diversification. There is no guarantee that a diversified portfolio will outperform a non-diversified portfolio in any given market environment. No investment strategy can guarantee profit or protection against loss in periods of declining values. No assurance can be given that capital market assumptions will prove to be correct, and the difference between assumptions and actual conditions could vary materially.
