Compound Advisers, Inc. (“Compound Advisers”)

Compound Advisers is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). There are other types of financial service professionals that provide different advisory services and fees and it is important that you understand the differences. The SEC provides free educational materials about investment advisors, brokerage services and investing and offers simple tools to help you to research firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/CRS.

Item 2. Relationships and Services

Conversation Starters:

Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?

How will you choose investments to recommend to me?

What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do you these qualifications mean?

Item 3. Fees, Costs, Conflicts, and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay?

Compound Advisers charges an hourly fee for ad hoc financial planning services. The hourly fee is typically $300 per hour. Compound Advisers also charges a fixed fee for subscription-based financial planning services on a quarterly basis. The fixed fee is generally $750-$2,000 per quarter. However charged, we have the discretion to adjust the fees for a given client depending on the nature and complexity of each client’s circumstances. Fees are set forth in each client’s investment management agreement.

Brokerage commissions, transaction fees, and other related costs and expenses are exclusive of and in addition to the advisory fee. We do not receive any portion of these commissions, fees, and costs. Other fees and costs you will pay will be outlined in the applicable advisory agreement.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Read more about our fees starting on page 7 \(Item 5\) of the Brochure. Your specific fee schedule can be found in your advisory agreement.

Compound Advisers may charge a fee of up to $10,000 to attend the firm's educational seminars and workshops. Any fee will be noted on the seminar or workshop invitation and is typically paid in advance.

Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?
How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

Conversation Starters:

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money could create conflicts of interest (as listed above).

Read more about our conflicts of interest and how we manage them in our Brochure starting on page 20 \(Items 10 and 11\).

How do your financial professionals make money?

Your financial professional receives total compensation consisting of a base salary and variable compensation. Total compensation takes into account market rate for the role and expertise as well as overall revenue, new assets, retained assets and contributions to our culture and business strength. Payment of incentive compensation and firm profit creates a conflict of interest for your financial professional.

Item 4. Disciplinary History

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No. Visit www.investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to learn more.

Conversation Starters:

As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?
