

The Shoebox Project

Volunteer Board Trustee - London UK

The Shoebox Project for Women is a registered charity that collects and distributes gift-filled Shoeboxes to local women impacted by homelessness in communities across Canada, USA and the UK.

The Shoebox Project is seeking to add volunteer Trustees to our Board in the United Kingdom. The Board of Trustees is responsible for organisational governance, which includes ensuring adequate resources are in place to fulfill the charity's mission, providing strategic leadership, ensuring that the charity is complying with relevant legislation and policies, and monitoring risk and accomplishment of goals. Members of the Board of Trustees are volunteers and serve without remuneration.

Trustees commit to approximately 5-15 hours of work per month, attend quarterly Board meetings and committee meetings, and work in close collaboration with the Executive Director.

We are particularly interested in recruiting Trustees with experience in non-profit law, governance and fundraising.

The Shoebox Project is committed to equity, diversity and inclusion and to building an organisation that reflects the communities we serve. If you believe in bringing communities together to make a genuine difference in the lives of local women, then this opportunity is for you.
