

July 16,2019

We are wanting to refinance and take cash out of your home because are want to looking to do some updates around the home, like new fences, painting and updated appliances. We are also trying to get all our loans and accounts out of the credit union due to the service has gone down hill.