About Public Health Jobs

Public Health Jobs is a specialist job board. It aims to advertise a range of public health jobs for professionals making their next career move.

Why use Public Health Jobs?

We showcase only public health-related roles: from research to policy, management, nursing to medicine and many other related roles.

A personal high-quality service

We believe we can offer a very personal service to help our customers achieve their aims. Have an idea or want to make a suggestion? Let us know and we will be there to listen.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Which payment methods do you accept?

The quickest way to get your job advert up and running is to pay with a card via Stripe (credit/debit card). Or you can select a purchase order and fill out our form to get started.

Are your prices inclusive of VAT?

Our prices are exempt from VAT.

How well will my job advert do?

We have a wide-reaching audience of public health professionals. However, every job advert will perform differently depending on various factors such as how niche the job role is, the seniority of the job role and time of year. Once your job closes and if you don't have enough candidates to shortlist the job we will readvertise your job post for free.

How do I post a job?

Once you have paid for a job package you will receive an email with a link to submit your information. Your job advert will then go live the same day.
