

Oliver Dolan - www.oliverdolan.com

From: London – England Living-in: Stockholm - Sweden

BSC - Computer Systems Engineering - Buckinghamshire University : (1st Class Hons)

MSC - Decision Support & Risk Analysis - Stockholm University : (In progress 2019 - Present)

Commercial
Work Experience

Jan 2020 - Now : Qred AB - FinTech CTO/CIO 8th Fastest Growing company in Europe, #1 in Sweden - FT 2020

- Set a new culture and strategy for the company to implement and maintain its growth and expansion whilst increasing security, quality and operational efficiency.
- Key focus on:
 - Resolve all technological strategic and implementation challenges to deliver the company product roadmap whilst providing global status updates to 120+ employees in 5 countries
 - Primarily responsible for growth into country number five - Belgium in 2020
 - Recruited from 3 engineers to 36, quickly all in Stockholm consisting of very competent people, many via referral due to new company culture and cultivated work environment of high standards
 - Set a new strategic path to increase security, automation, machine learning, personalization and user experience across new and already established products
- Working with external auditors (PWC, FCG) as a CISO, reporting to Finans Inspection and implementing the European Banking Authority guidelines for infosec compliance.
- Primarily responsible for multiple successful product and technology due diligence processes, one which resulted in a large financing round of 50 million euros from Nordic Capital.
- Large exposure to the technical details of PSD2, financial payments, credit cards and AML/KYC processes and applying machine learning and statistical analysis for price and conversion and optimization

Feb 2018 - Jan 2020 : WorldFavor - Engineering Lead - ReactJs - SAAS / Process Manager / InfoSec

- Engineering Lead, with responsibilities to enhance the technical side of product delivery
- Main objectives
 - Guide product strategy and enable the growth of the product and tech team through supplier relationships and recruitment.
 - Initiated a full agile process for the company as an agile coach.(KPIs, Dashboards, Feedback Loops)
 - Built and maintained the product roadmap to give visibility to strategic management
 - Actively involved in recruitment of new engineers, negotiating with recruiters and candidates.
 - Responsible for platform security, infosec compliance, penetration testing and due diligence..

April 2016 – Feb 2018 : CSG International – Snr Engineer (L4 - Highest level product support group)

- Senior engineer and scrum master in an international agile software development team, focused on planning and implementation of project backlog items using SAFE framework to support globally critical infrastructure for many of the most significant mobile phone operators throughout the world.
- Obtained "Above Average" for the top Agile certification available: "Agile Certified Practitioner" awarded by the Project Management Institute.

March 2011 – April 2016 : Cobham Wireless – Senior Engineer - C# / Javascript / Sql Server

- Working internationally with project stakeholders and delivering globally significant communication systems.
- Completely responsible for the software running in the new world trade center, the London Shard & Heathrow T-5. Senior architect of the communication management systems for 2012 London Olympics

June 2008 - March 2011 : Northrop Grumman - Software Systems Engineer (Graduate Program)

- Customer visitations selling and supporting global defense systems on multi government operations.
- Experience of working and leading on site support for a number of NATO and UK-MOD projects.
- UK Government Security Cleared 2008 - 2011

Personal Interests

Additional

- I have played golf to a professional standard for many years and have won prizes all over my home country. I really enjoy the challenge and difficulty of golf and working with coaches from the English golf squad really taught me a lot about discipline, preparation and elite performance.
- During the summer of 2014 & 2015 I ran a football meet-up group which played twice a week in Stockholm. This gave ≈60 players a game of football each week.