CONTANGO ORE, INC.

Contango ORE Announces Earnings For the Quarter Ended March 31, 2023

HOUSTON, TX -- (May 16, 2023) -- Contango ORE, Inc. ("Contango," "CORE" or the "Company") (NYSE American: CTGO) announced that it had a net loss of $(7.9) million, or $(1.09) per basic and diluted share, for the three months ended March 31, 2023 compared to a net loss of $(6.8) million or $(1.01) per basic and diluted share for the same period last year. For the nine months ended March 31, 2023, the Company reported a net loss of $(29.3) million, or $(4.23) per basic and diluted share, compared to a net loss of $(16.3) million or $(2.42) per basic and diluted share for the same period last year. The increase in net loss for the nine-month period ended March 31, 2023, is primarily due to an increase in loss from equity investment in the Company's equity interest in Peak Gold, LLC, a subsidiary of Kinross Gold Corporation (the "Peak Gold JV"), as the Peak Gold JV moved into the development phase in early 2022, and has been incurring costs in preparation for the first production at the Manh Choh mine in 2024.

The Company also announced that it raised $6.9 million in cash, as a result of some of its warrant holders early exercising their warrants. The Company's current cash balance is approximately $9.5 million. The Company also announced that it filed its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2023, with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

ABOUT CORE

CORE is a company that engages in the exploration in Alaska for gold and associated minerals through a 30% interest in PGJV, which leases approximately 675,000 acres for exploration and development, and through a 100% owned subsidiary, Contango Minerals Alaska, LLC, which leases approximately 137,000 acres for exploration. The Company also owns the rights to the Lucky Shot, Coleman and War Baby mines, and approximately 16,600 acres of surrounding mining claims located in the Willow Mining District about 75 miles north of Anchorage, Alaska. FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release contains forward-looking statements regarding CORE that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for “forward-looking statements” provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, based on CORE’s current expectations and includes statements regarding future results of operations, quality and nature of the asset base, the assumptions upon which estimates are based and other expectations, beliefs, plans, objectives, assumptions, strategies or statements about future events or performance (often, but not always, using words such as “expects”, “projects”, “anticipates”, “plans”, “estimates”, “potential”, “possible”, “probable”, or “intends”, or stating that certain actions, events or results “may”, “will”, “should”, or “could” be taken, occur or be achieved). Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, estimates and projections that involve a number of risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those, reflected in the statements. These risks include, but are not limited to: the risks of the exploration and the mining industry (for example, operational risks in exploring for, developing mineral reserves; risks and uncertainties involving geology; the speculative nature of the mining industry; the uncertainty of estimates and projections relating to future production, costs and expenses; the volatility of natural resources prices, including prices of gold and associated minerals; the existence and extent of commercially exploitable minerals in properties acquired by CORE or PGJV; ability to realize the anticipated benefits of PGJV; potential delays or changes in plans with respect to exploration or development projects or capital expenditures; the interpretation of exploration results and the estimation of mineral resources; the loss of key employees or consultants; health, safety and environmental risks and risks related to weather and other natural disasters); uncertainties as to the availability and cost of financing; CORE’s inability to retain or maintain its relative ownership interest in PGJV; inability to realize expected value from acquisitions; inability of our management team to execute its plans to meet its goals; the extent of disruptions caused by an outbreak of disease, such as the COVID-19 pandemic; and the possibility that government policies may change, political developments may occur or governmental approvals may be delayed or withheld, including as a result of presidential and congressional elections in the U.S. or the inability to obtain mining permits. Additional information on these and other factors which could affect CORE’s exploration program or financial results are included in CORE’s other reports on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Investors are cautioned that any forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results or developments may differ materially from the projections in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on the estimates and opinions of management at the time the statements are made. CORE does not assume any obligation to update forward-looking statements should circumstances or management’s estimates or opinions change.
