

WELCOME TO THE GEORGIA WWII HERITAGE TRAIL PASSPORT

Let's get started on your journey of discovery!

This passport is your guide to all ten sites and includes three weekend routes to explore. Don't forget to capture your memories on the debrief page at each location.

Learn how Georgians rose to the challenge and did their part to defend freedom and democracy during World War II. Come experience the rich history and interactive displays along the trail; it's a family friendly adventure that welcomes all ages.

Take flight in a World War II airplane, build a Liberty ship, explore a pilot training base, march in the boots of the Band of Brothers, and more! Use this passport to track your progress along the Trail by asking each location to stamp their page with the "V for Victory!"

Visit georgiawwiitrail.org to help plan your experience.

ROUTE NO.1

THE COAST

1

Start at the National Museum of the MIGHTY EIGHTH AIR FORCE in Pooler where you'll learn about the air war in Europe.

2

Next, visit the WORLD WAR II HOME FRONT MUSEUM on St. Simons Island and discover the fascinating history of how one small community banded together to do their part during the war.

3

A little farther south, you will find the ST. MARYS SUBMARINE MUSEUM. Take a deep dive into the history of the submarine force of the U.S. Navy.

4

Complete your trip at the WORLD WAR II FLIGHT TRAINING MUSEUM in Douglas, the most intact World War II contract pilot training facility in Georgia.

ROUTE NO.2

MIDDLE GEORGIA

1

Kick off your adventure in Warner Robins at the MUSEUM OF AVIATION to learn more about the Tuskegee Airmen and "jump" with the 507th Parachute Infantry Regiment.

2

The Museum of Aviation is also the home of the GEORGIA AVIATION HALL OF FAME where you can salute the honor, bravery, and lasting impact of Georgia's most revered aviators.

3

About an hour away is the NATIONAL PRISONER OF WAR MUSEUM at the Andersonville National Historic Site. Stop in to see displays, artifacts, and oral history interviews featuring POWs, including World War II.

Travel on to Columbus to visit the world-class NATIONAL INFANTRY MUSEUM, home of more than 200 years of United States Army Infantry history.

ROUTE
NO.3

NORTH GEORGIA

1

Start your adventure in Peachtree City, home to the COMMEMORATIVE AIR FORCE AIRBASE GEORGIA where you can see fully restored World War II aircraft and even take a flight in one!

2

Head north into the mountains of northeast Georgia to Toccoa, to visit CURRAHEE MILITARY MUSEUM, the training grounds of the 101st Airborne Division – the Band of Brothers.
