TACTICAL ANALYSIS

OFFENSIVE 1V1 DUEL

He continuously explodes his speed in 1v1 offensive duels. By showing up either on the right or the left, he generates positional superiorities. Also, he is capable of being unpredictable for his marker since he can play by the outside and inside lane to look for association.

INDIVIDUAL SPEED

He is quick and smart to play. He attacks into space well, both on and off the ball. He continuously makes diagonal runs in behind the rivals. He understands his positional role to move and show up as an option to receive either centralized or near the sideline.

SHOOTING TECHNIQUE

He has a good mid-range shot. He can execute his shooting technique both in long-shots and set pieces. Also, he puts teammates in play through accurate lateral crosses. He is able to do this both while moving or crossing statically.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

He has a great individual technique. It allows him to be a participative player no matter the zone of the field he is at. Also, it helps him take shots, score and put teammates in play. He leverages his quality of pass to make through-line passes in the final third.

VISION OF PLAY

He always participates in the creation of play. He shows up as an option to receive the ball. Since he moves to find gaps, he always has options to pass after receiving. He makes through balls in the last third of the field. He frequently tries breaking-line passes.

INSIDE PLAY

By all these characteristics, playing in between the lines is part of his game. It makes him to look for linking inside. Pinning him is tough to accomplish due to his mobility. He can make quick diagonal runs into the box to find out shots while running or dangerous crosses.
