2020 Wisconsin Health Disparities Report: Rural and Urban Populations

Purpose
- Identify where substantial disparities in health outcomes and care exist by rural and urban residence in Wisconsin
- Accelerate programs working to eliminate disparities in rural and urban communities throughout Wisconsin
- Engage stakeholders of all backgrounds to work collectively to reduce disparities

Substantial Disparities

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rural Underserved</th>
<th>Rural Advantaged</th>
<th>Urban Underserved</th>
<th>Urban Advantaged</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Colorectal Cancer Screening</td>
<td>HPV Vaccination</td>
<td>Childhood Vaccinations</td>
<td>Depression Screening</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tobacco-Free in Heart Disease</td>
<td></td>
<td>Optimal Control in Heart Disease</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The 2020 report used six categorizations to describe rural and urban ZIP codes in Wisconsin: Rural Underserved, Rural, Rural Advantaged, Urban Underserved, Urban, and Urban Advantaged. Substantial disparities were not found in the Rural and Urban ZIP codes.

VIEW THE REPORT
www.wchq.org/Disparities.php

VIEW THE REPORT APPENDIX
www.hipexchange.org/WCHQDisparities