

Results through Relationships™ Workshop

Productive Relationships are High-Performing

Learn How to Build a Workplace Where Relationships Thrive

Doesn't it seem like some managers and teams always make "it" happen, no matter what "it" is? They've mastered the secret to getting consistent, stellar results despite changing roles, goals, accountabilities, structures, or even new team members. They transform the stumbling blocks of conflict and misunderstanding into opportunities to accelerate their success.

For these high-achievers, building and sustaining collaborative relationships is priority one. They understand that members of their team can go further together than they can alone. The good news is that you, too, can leverage the power of relationships and drive results.

Workshop Description

In this up-on-your-feet, learn-by-doing program, you'll discover how to:

- Communicate effectively with your teammates and clients so you can achieve mutually beneficial results
- Know your strengths and deploy them at the right time for the right reason for greater effectiveness
- Increase people's commitment to and responsibility for achieving shared outcomes
- Assume a greater sense of ownership for producing results
- Collaborate with members of your team to make the best decisions for your organization
- Create a Results Action Planner for a high-stakes situation you are facing right now

Before the Workshop

The SDI 2.0

Core Strengths® is powered by the Strength Deployment Inventory 2.0 (SDI 2.0). This award-winning, scientifically validated assessment provides four views of you. It reveals why you do what you do, and how you relate to others. Using Relationship Intelligence (RQ), the SDI 2.0 provides a common language for understanding what's important to the people around you, and how you can work together more effectively. It provides tools for choosing the right strengths to make the right decisions, even in high-stakes situations.

SDI 2.0 Shows What Drives You

The SDI 2.0 maps three intrinsic motives people have for acting how they do:

People — a drive to help and develop others

Performance — a drive to direct action and achieve results

Process — a drive to establish clear and meaningful order

The unique way you prioritize People, Performance, and Process places you in one of seven Motives regions on the SDI Triangle. Beyond behaviors and strengths, your motives describe who you are at the core and show why you do what you do. The SDI 2.0 powers the RQ you need to make better choices and use your strengths to improve your interactions with others.

SDI 2.0 Highlights Your Strengths and Overdone Strengths Weaknesses

The SDI 2.0 reveals the way you prioritize 28 strengths. By analyzing the results, you'll gain insight into the broader range of strengths you can draw on during a given situation. This knowledge will enable you to make better choices when working with different people.

The SDI 2.0 gives you and your team unique, personalized insights needed to:

- Take personal responsibility for results
- Develop innovative solutions
- Make better decisions
- Navigate opposition and conflict
- Strengthen relationships within your team
- Manage the strengths you might overdo

Organizational Impact

After decades of research, we're driven by one central reality: lasting results are the product of resilient relationships. So, we've devoted our entire mission to helping leaders and organizations develop Relationship Intelligence (RQ): the science of relationships and how to improve them.

During the Results through Relationships experiential workshop, our goal is to give your organization a common language and actionable insight where you can:

Improve Collaboration

Leverage differences and build trust to overcome innovation-killers while rapidly achieving goals.

Build Better Teams

Teams with resilient relationships achieve breakthrough when others breakdown. Teams with high RQ shape the conversations that solve problems and get work done.

Coach for Performance

Turn managers into effective coaches. Core Strengths' real-time RQ insight elevates the manager-team relationship, allowing them to rise to challenges and respond to opportunities, together.

Bottom line, that elusive "it" factor is Relationship Intelligence (RQ). It is teams who know how to speak each other's language and show up with the right strengths for the moment — all while staying true to their intrinsic motives and values. That's "it". So if results are your goal, let relationships be the glue. That's RQ.

“The implementation of the Core Strength training has been transformational to our organization. Core Strengths provides our workforce with the tools they need to be better leaders, better teammates, strengthen relationships and get better results.”
