ABOUT

I'm an experienced Visual Designer driven by the discovery of new ways to engage and inspire users. Leveraging logo design, typography, color palettes, iconography, and user-centered design principles, I strive to create user experiences that are both visually attractive and highly functional. My background in writing and education helps too, allowing me to deliver superb communication during projects and thrive as a role player in team-focused environments.

EXPERIENCE

Visual Designer

O'BRIANT GROUP | JAN 2020 - PRESENT
