

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THE ASFA PURCHASING POLICY

ASFA adopted the current Arts and Science Federation of Associations’ Ethical Purchasing Policy, May 24th, 2020. This policy aims to uphold sustainability, ethical practices, and financial solvency within the ASFA community and aims to hold members of the ASFA accountable for their actions.

ASFA’s Ethical Purchasing Policy will govern the work and roles of ASFA executives, employees, MA executives, councillors, committee members, and other individuals regularly involved with ASFA.

Therefore, in order to ensure that ASFA members are empowered with knowledge of the ASFA sustainability and ethical purchasing practices stated within ASFA’s Ethical Purchasing Policy, all individuals listed above are required to review this policy and sign the present waiver indicating their acknowledgement.

By signing the present waiver, I acknowledge that:

- 1) I have read and fully understand The Arts and Science Federation of Associations’ Ethical Purchasing Policy
- 2) I understand that engaging in any practice which conflicts with ASFA’s Ethical Purchasing policy can result in disciplinary and financial consequences
- 3) I understand that this policy will govern my work as a member of the ASFA community.
