Every society admitted to membership may be represented by one delegate at the General Meetings of this Society. The appointment of a delegate shall be in Form VI prescribed in the Appendix to these rules.

No person carrying on any business similar to that in which the Society is engaged shall be eligible to become or continue as a member of the Society.

No member other than a registered society under the Acts, shall hold an interest exceeding £200 in the shares of the Society.

7. Any expelled member shall only be re-admitted by the vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting at a General Meeting and on a motion of which fourteen days' notice has been given.
8. Any member, all of whose shares have been transferred or cancelled, or a member who shall cease to be eligible for membership under Rule 5, paragraph 2, or otherwise, shall thereupon cease to be a member of the Society. A member shall not otherwise be entitled to withdraw from the Society.

V. – CAPITAL.

9. The capital of the Society shall consist of Ordinary Shares of £1 each. An Ordinary Share or Shares may be held by an individual or by a Society. Ordinary Shares to the number of not less than two may be held jointly by two individuals subject to the provisions of Rule 12. Twelve and a half new pence per Ordinary Share shall be paid in cash on application. The balance of the Ordinary Share Capital shall be paid in such calls as the Committee may from time to time direct, provided that such balance shall be called up at the rate of at least twelve and a half pence per share per annum. A fortnight's notice of every call shall be sent to the registered address of each member. Without prejudice to any other method of recovery available, the Committee shall have power to collect all calls by the deduction of the sum due in respect thereof from the amount payable by the Society to the shareholder for the milk supplied by such shareholder. Members may elect to pay up their Ordinary Shares in full at any time. The Committee shall have power to decide the number of Ordinary Shares which any person must apply for, subject to Section 4 of the Act; but no person shall be admitted to membership in the Society who has not first applied for at least one share.

The Society may charge the uncalled balance of the ordinary share capital of the Society with the repayment of moneys due or thereafter to become due by the Society. Each such charge shall be in such form and subject to such conditions as the Committee shall deem proper and in the event of the voluntary or compulsory liquidation of the Society, the said uncalled balance of the ordinary share capital of the Society shall be applied in the first instance to the repayment of the moneys due on foot of such charge or (if more than one) of such charges in their proper priorities.

10. Interest not exceeding the rate of 5% per annum may be paid on Ordinary Shares, but shall not be calculated on fractions either of £1 or of a calendar month. The liability of members shall be limited to their Shares.
11. Applications for admission to membership for ordinary transferable shares shall be made by individuals in Form I in the Appendix, and by societies in Form II in the Appendix, or in forms respectively as near Forms I and II in the Appendix as the case allows.

Applications shall be considered by the Committee at the next ensuing meeting, and notice of admission or otherwise shall be sent to the applicant within one week after the Committee meeting at which the application is considered. Where an application for shares is rejected the Committee shall not be required to assign any reason for such rejection.

12. A share register book shall be kept by the Secretary in which shall be recorded the names, places of residence, and descriptions of the members of the Society, the date of entrance to the Society of each member, the number, description, and value of the shares held by him, the date or dates when he acquired such shares, and the amount paid or agreed to be considered as paid on such shares, and when he ceased to retain same. Every transfer of a share shall be registered in the same way. If two persons are registered as joint holders of any shares, one of such persons only may exercise the right to vote at meetings of the Society, but either person may give effectual receipts for any profits payable in respect thereof.
13. Shares shall be transferable as hereinafter mentioned.

A member may, with the consent of the Committee, transfer Ordinary Shares to any person upon giving one calendar month's notice in writing to the Secretary, stating the full name, place of residence, and occupation of such person, the number of shares to be transferred, and the consideration for the transfer. In no case shall the consideration for a transfer of shares exceed the amount standing to the credit of such shares in the Society's books.

If any member transferring shares is a holder of Loan Guarantee Shares, he shall not be entitled to transfer any shares unless at the same time he transfers an appropriate number of Loan Guarantee Shares.

The Committee shall not be bound to assign any reason for refusing to sanction any transfer of shares. In any case in which the Committee refuse to sanction a transfer of shares the holder of such shares may have the question determined by arbitration in accordance with Rule 69.

No share shall be withdraw-able.

14. The Society shall, subject to Rules 9, 15, and 16, have a first lien on the Ordinary Shares held by any member and may set off any sum credited thereon towards the payment of any debt due by the member to the Society; provided, however, that no right shall obtain on the part of any member to set off any payment made on foot of his shareholding against any debt due by him to the Society.

15. The Committee may sell and transfer any Ordinary Share standing in the name of a member who is indebted to the Society, provided a fortnight's notice in writing has been given to the defaulting member and apply so much of the proceeds as may be necessary to the discharge of the debt due, together with the necessary expenses incidental to its recovery. A member in arrears with the calls duly made on his shares shall forfeit all rights of membership, including attendance at meetings, during the period of his default.
16. All moneys payable by a member to the Society, whether in respect of shares or otherwise, shall be debts due from such member to the Society and shall be recoverable as such in the Circuit Court or District Court, according as the case may be, of the district in which the registered office of the Society is situate, or in that of the district in which such member resides, at the option of the Society, or where the amount involved is within the jurisdiction of the High Court, in the High Court, and the Committee may take legal proceedings for the recovery thereof.
17. The Committee may obtain loans for the purposes of the Society from members, persons, bankers or corporate bodies, particularly "The Corporation", or from "The Department", to an extent not exceeding such amount as may be authorised by a General Meeting of the Society, on such conditions, for such periods and at such rates of interest as such members, persons, bankers, corporate bodies, "The Corporation" or "The Department" may stipulate and as may be authorised by a General Meeting of the Society, or in the absence of a resolution of such General Meeting authorizing such conditions, periods or rates of interest, as may be authorised by the Committee.

The Committee may secure the repayment of any such loan and any interest thereon to the members, persons, bankers, corporate bodies "The Corporation" or "The Department" by any or all of the following means:-

- (a) By a mortgage or charge on all, or any, land, premises, plant and fixtures, the property of the Society; and/or
 - (b) By a mortgage or charge on all, or any, land, premises, plant and fixtures acquired, or to be acquired by the Society by means of the loan to be secured; and/or
 - (c) By a covenant with The Corporation, The Department, other body or person that as often as any portion of the uncalled capital of the Society is called up or paid in advance of calls, notice of such calls or payment shall be given to the Department, Corporation, or other body or person, so long as the loan to be secured, or any part thereof, is outstanding, and that the amount received on foot thereof shall, if and when the Department, Corporation, other body or person so require, be paid by the Society to the Department, Corporation, other body or person, and be applicable in or towards payment of the money owing on foot of the loan to be secured; and/or
 - (d) By bonds, agreements or promissory notes; and/or
 - (e) By Loan Guarantee Shares in accordance with the provisions of Rule 73.
18. Should any member of the Committee become personally liable for any debt incurred on behalf of the Society he shall not be removed from office or be subject to retirement without his prior consent in writing unless either (a) his liability has ceased, (b) the Committee shall, prior to the date on which his retirement or removal from office would otherwise become effective, have obtained from the creditor or creditors whose debts have been guaranteed by such member an absolute release of all the obligations of such member under his guarantee.

19. The Committee may also receive money on deposit from members and others, in such sums, at such rates of interest and on such terms as regards withdrawal, to such aggregate amount as the General Meetings may determine. Provided, however, that the total amount due upon such deposits shall not at any time exceed the amount of the subscribed share capital of the Society; and provided, further, that if such deposits shall exceed 50p in any one payment or £20 for any one depositor payable on less than two clear days' notice, then statement in the form of Appendix VII shall be conspicuously hung up in its registered office as is provided for in Section 19 of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act, 1893.

VI.- INVESTMENTS, LOANS TO MEMBERS, Etc.

20. The Committee may invest any portion of the Society's capital as follows:-
- (I) In any security in which Trustees are for the time being by law authorized to invest.
 - (II) In the shares of, loans to, or deposits with any other registered society or company, provided such society or company shall be one with limited liability.
 - (III) As loans to credit societies registered under the Friendly Societies Act or to societies registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts.
 - (IV) In advances to members of the Society on the security of real or personal property, subject to the following conditions:-
 - (a) Loans, when approved by the Committee, shall be granted to members who are able to obtain two sureties approved by the Committee, or who can give such other security as the Committee deem to be sufficient. Loans shall only be granted for some profitable or productive purpose, or one which in the opinion of the Committee, will effect a saving or economy to the borrower. All money lent to members shall be applied to such purposes as the Society or its Committee of Management may approve.
 - (b) No member who is indebted for money lent to him by the Society shall be accepted as surety for another member requiring a loan, unless the Committee are unanimous that it is safe to do so.
 - (c) A member desiring to obtain a loan shall fill up a form stating the object for which the loan is intended, the term for which it is required, whether it is proposed to repay the loan by instalments, the names and addresses of the sureties who will sign with him any agreement or promissory note, or such other security as may be offered by the borrower. The application, if forwarded to the Secretary not less than two days prior to a meeting of the Committee, and, if found to be in order, shall be considered at that meeting.
 - (d) If the Committee are satisfied with the trustworthiness of the applicant, the sufficiency of the security offered, the profitableness by productiveness or saving which the use of the loan may effect, and if they have sufficient funds under their control, they may sanction the loan.
 - (e) No loan shall be granted for a period exceeding one year, unless it be made repayable by regular instalments of equal amount; nor shall any loan be granted to a member which shall make the total sum owing from him to the Society at any time exceed £100.

- (f) If the Committee decide that the loan should not be made, either from lack of funds, or if they otherwise deem it undesirable; or if they think proper to postpone the consideration of any application for a loan, notice to that effect shall be sent to the applicant by the Secretary. The Committee shall not be required to state their reasons for refusing any application for a loan.
- (g) The interest to be charged for loans shall in no case exceed 7½% per annum. The interest shall be payable on the same date as loan is repayable.
- (h) If the Committee find it necessary for the borrower to make any payment on account of expenses incurred in connection with the loan obtained, then such payment shall be made by the borrower at the time that the loan is advanced.
- (i) When a loan is sanctioned a notice shall be sent to the borrower to that effect, and if the borrower does not consent to take the loan on the terms offered by the Committee within one week from the date upon which notice is given the Committee shall not be held bound to complete the loan. If he consents to accept the terms offered, then, before the amount is advanced, the borrower, and his sureties, if required, shall execute a bill of exchange, promissory note, declaration as to possession of effects free from encumbrance, an agreement as to the terms of repayment, or any other document which the Committee may consider necessary.
- (j) In the case of loans being sanctioned for the purchase of live stock, a policy of insurance for such stock shall, if the Committee deem it necessary, be taken out by the borrower after the purchase.
- (k) If the loan be repayable by instalments, the borrower shall be supplied with a card, upon which shall be stated the amount and terms of advance, and upon which the instalments, when repaid by him, shall be entered and initialed by the official to whom the money is paid.
- (l) No person other than a member of Committee or the Secretary shall be present at any meeting of the Committee when an application for a loan is under consideration. A member of Committee who applies for a loan must withdraw while his application is being discussed. If there is a difference of opinion concerning the granting of a loan the voting shall be taken by ballot. The proceedings with regard to loans at Committee meetings shall be kept secret, and any member of Committee or officer of Society infringing this rule shall be liable to expulsion from the Committee or dismissal.
- (m) In the event of any loan, or instalment of a loan, not being paid on the date when it is due, the Secretary shall send a notice to the defaulting borrower. If the amount due is not paid within two weeks, together with a fine of 1p in the £ on the loan or instalment of loan owing, and no explanation is placed before the Committee for non-payment, then the borrower and his sureties shall be required to pay within fourteen days the whole amount then owing, or, if other security has been given, steps shall be taken towards the realisation of the same.

- (n) A member failing to pay the amount due and the fine, within the time named, and not giving, in the opinion of the Committee, a sufficient reason for non-payment, shall not be entitled to receive another loan from the Society.
 - (o) If, by reason of sickness, or other sufficient cause, notified to the Secretary before the loan is due, a member finds he will be unable to discharge his obligations to the Society, the Committee shall have power to remit the fine. They shall also have power to extend the time fixed for payment of the loan on such conditions as they think fit.
 - (p) If any member shall be found to have misapplied a loan, the Committee shall have power to recall the loan or otherwise bring the matter before a General Meeting with a view to the expulsion of the member under the provisions of Rule 6.
21. The Committee may, subject to the Rules or Articles of Association of the body to which loans have been made or in which capital has been otherwise invested, appoint one of their number to vote on its behalf at meetings of any Society or Company in which any portion of the Society's funds are invested.

The notice of every such meeting shall state the time and place at which it shall be held.

The Committee may for like reason arrange or fix the auditor's remuneration and expenses for such work as he may be engaged to do.

The Committee shall have power to fill any vacancy in the office of auditor occurring between any Annual General Meeting and another, whether occurring because of the refusal of the Department, Corporation, or Bankers to approve of the appointment made at any Annual General Meeting, or from any other cause. - (h) Any other business arising that may be deemed by the meeting proper and expedient subject to Rules 57 and 68, provided the Secretary has received at least fourteen days' notice of it beforehand, but the members of the Committee present at the meeting may, if they think fit, waive this proviso and concede to the meeting such right of discussion and action in reference to any matter raised under this head at any Annual General Meeting as they may consider adequate.

24. A Special Meeting may be convened by the Committee at any time, on their own authority, or upon a requisition addressed to the Committee, Chairman, or Secretary, signed by half the number of members of the Society for the time being, if not more

No meeting shall be rendered incapable of transacting business by want of a quorum after the chair has been taken, provided that the meeting shall be adjourned should the attendance fall below five.
27. Any General Meeting may be adjourned from time to time for any period not exceeding twenty eight clear days. No business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting except what relates to the original agenda of such meeting. Any member or members of the Committee may be removed from office by a resolution of a Special General Meeting. Provided always that a member who has guaranteed a debt or debts of the Society shall not vacate his office by reason only of absence from meetings of the Society without leave of the Committee and shall not be removable from office by a resolution of a Special General Meeting so long as his guarantee remains binding on him.

38. There shall be at least twelve Ordinary Committee Meetings in the year. Special Meetings may be held at any time on giving forty-eight hours' notice in writing to each member. A Special Committee Meeting shall transact no business other than that appearing on the Agenda paper which shall accompany the notice convening the meeting. He shall be entitled to vote at all meetings of the Committee and shall have a casting vote whenever there is an equality of votes on any question. The Chairman of each meeting shall sign the minutes of the last previous meeting.

The Committee may also appoint one of their body as a Vice-Chairman. Any person, if so appointed, shall take the place of the Chairman in the latter's absence and hold office in accordance with the same provisions as those which apply to the Chairman.

IX.-THE MANAGER, EMPLOYEES, SECRETARY AND OFFICIALS.

40. The Committee may appoint and remove a General Manager, who shall have such functions, powers and remuneration as they shall from time to time decide, provided, however, that the manager may only be dismissed by the vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting at a Special Committee Meeting, of which notice shall have been duly given in accordance with Rule 38.

The Committee may give authority to the General Manager, under such conditions as they may determine, to appoint and remove subordinate employees of the Society and fix their remuneration provided that, if he exercises this authority, he shall subsequently report any such appointments and removals to the Committee.

The Committee shall appoint and may remove all employees of the Society and fix their remuneration.

41. The Committee may appoint and remove a Secretary, who may also be a member of the Committee, subject to Rule 36, or may make such other provision as they deem expedient for the discharge of secretarial work, and arrange the terms of remuneration (if any) therefor. The Secretary shall have such functions and powers and remuneration as the Committee shall from time to time decide. The procedure in the case of the dismissal of the Secretary shall be identical with that laid down by Rule 40 for the dismissal of the Manager. The offices of Manager and Secretary may be held by the same person.
42. All officials and employees of the Society having charge of money or property belonging to the Society shall provide such security as the Committee deem adequate, and in such form as they may approve.
43. The Committee shall have power to open and operate as they may determine an account with any banking company of which they approve.

X.- AFFILIATION.

44. The books and accounts of the Society shall be open to the inspection of any duly accredited representative of the I.A.O.S. during business hours. This subscription shall be payable by the Society during the current year. The Committee may make such arrangements as appear to them to be desirable for the collection of these amounts.

XI.- MINORS, NOMINATIONS, DEATH INTESTACY, BANKRUPTCY, AND INSANITY.

45. A person under the age of 21 but above the age of 16 may be a member of the Society and enjoy all the rights of a member (except as by the Acts provided), and may execute all instruments and give all acquittances necessary to be executed or given under the Rules, but shall not be a member of the Committee, Manager or Treasurer of the Society.
46. (1). Every member of the Society not being under the age of 16 years may, by writing under his hand delivered at or sent to the registered office of the Society during the lifetime of such member or made in any book kept thereat, nominate any person or persons to or among whom there shall be transferred at his decease such property in the Society as may be his at the time of his decease (whether in shares, loans or deposits, or otherwise), or so much thereof as is specified in such nomination, if the nomination does not comprise the whole. If on the death of the nominator the amount of his property in the Society comprised in the nomination exceeds £100 the nomination shall be valid to the extent of the sum of £100, but not further or otherwise. Provided that a person so nominated shall not be an officer or servant of the Society unless such officer or servant is the husband, wife, father, mother, child, brother, sister, nephew, or niece of the nominator.

- (2) A nomination so made may be revoked or varied by a subsequent nomination signed and delivered or sent or made as aforesaid or by any similar document in the nature of a revocation or variation under the hand of the nominator so delivered, sent or made as aforesaid, but shall not be revocable or variable by the will of the nominator or by any codicil thereto.
- (3) The Society shall keep a book wherein the names of all persons so nominated and all revocations or variations (if any) of such nominations shall be recorded, and the property comprised in any such nomination to an amount not exceeding £100 shall be payable or transferable to the nominee although the rules of the Society declare the shares not to be transferable.
- (4) The marriage of a member of the Society shall operate as a revocation of any nomination made by him before such marriage, provided that, in the event of an officer of the Society having transferred any property of a member to a nominee, in ignorance of a marriage contracted subsequent to the date of the nomination, the receipt of the nominee shall be a valid discharge to the Society, and the Society shall be under no liability to any other person claiming such property.

47. A notice of the right of nomination shall be sent to every individual member who has not exercised this right, with the report of the first ordinary business meeting in each year of which a report is circulated among the members, and shall be otherwise given, as such meetings may direct.

48. The member shall pay for the recording or registering of every nomination, revocation or variation, whether or not accompanied by a fresh nomination, 1p, and one fee only shall be charged for the entry of all the names in any nomination, revocation, or variation, if more than one.

49. (1) On receiving satisfactory proof of the death of a nominator, the Committee of the Society shall, subject to the limitation on amount hereinbefore mentioned, either transfer the property comprised in the nomination in manner directed by the nomination or pay to every person entitled thereunder the full value of the property given to him, unless the shares comprised in the nomination, if transferred as directed by the nominator, would raise the share capital of any nominee to a sum exceeding £200, in which case they shall pay him the value of such excess.

(2) Where a nominee who is nominated under the provisions of the Acts is under sixteen years of age the Society may pay the sum nominated to either parent, or to a guardian of the nominee, or to any other person of full age who will undertake to hold the same on trust for the nominee or to apply the same for his benefit and whom the Society may think a fit and proper person for the purpose, and the receipt of such parent, guardian, or other person shall be a sufficient discharge to the Society for all moneys so paid.

(3) If any member entitled to property in the Society in respect of shares, loans, or deposits, not exceeding in the whole, at his death, £100, dies intestate, without having made any nomination thereof then subsisting, the Committee may, without letters of administration, distribute the same among such persons as appear to them, on such evidence as they deem satisfactory to be entitled by law to receive the same. If the principal value of the estate, in respect of which estate duty is payable, of any deceased member of the Society exceeds £100, any property or money to be transferred or paid under Sections 25, 26 or 27 of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1893, as amended by the Industrial and Provident Societies (Amendment) Act, 1913, without probate or administration, shall be liable to estate duty as part of the amount on which that duty is charged; and the Committee of the Society, before making any such transfer or payment, may require a statutory declaration by the claimant or one of the claimants that such principal value, including the property or money in question, does not, after deduction of debts and general expenses, exceed £100.

(4). If the principal value of the property or money to be so transferred or paid exceeds £80, the Committee of the Society shall, before making any transfer or payment to any person other than the legal personal representative of the deceased member, require production of a certificate from the Revenue Commissioners of the payment of the estate duty, and a duly stamped receipt for the succession or legacy duty payable in respect of the property or money so transferred or paid, or a certificate that no estate, succession, or legacy duty is payable thereon.

(5). If any such member is illegitimate, and leaves no widow, widower, or issue, the Committee shall deal with his property in the Society as the Minister for Finance shall direct.

(6). Upon the death of a member who has an interest in the Society exceeding £100, and a notice in writing being given by his executors or administrators to the Secretary of the Society, stating the death of such member, and the Christian name, surname, profession, or business of such legal representative, and specifying the nature and amount of his interest or claim; and the production, if the case requires, of the probate of the will of such member, or letters of administration of his estate, and of such evidence (if any) of his death as may be required by the Committee, the Committee, after satisfying any nomination made by such member, shall either transfer the shares, or other interest of the member specified in such notice in the books of the Society to his legal representative, or shall pay to him the sum which represents the full value thereof, and may make such transfer or payment at their discretion, unless the transfer would increase the share capital of the transferee in the Society to more than £200, in which case they shall make the payment of any such excess in money.

50. If a member or person claiming through a member becomes insane, and no committee of his estate or trustee of his property has been duly appointed, the Society, acting through its Committee, may, when it is proved to the satisfaction of the Committee of the Society that it is just and expedient so to do, pay the amount of the shares, loans, and deposits belonging to such member to any person whom they shall judge proper to receive the same on his behalf, whose receipt shall be a good discharge to the Society for any money so paid.

51. All payments or transfers made by the Committee, under the above provisions, with respect to payments or transfers to or on behalf of a deceased or insane member to any person who at the time appears to the Committee to be entitled thereunder shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the Committee or Society by any other person.

52. If any member becomes bankrupt, his property in the Society shall be transferable or payable to the trustee of his property or to his assignee in bankruptcy.
53. Every nominee or other person to whom any share is transferred under this section shall thereby become a member of the Society, if not previously a member.
54. On the decease of a joint holder of any share, it shall be transferred into the name of the survivor on his application.

XII.-STATUTORY OBLIGATIONS AND MISCELLANEOUS.

59. The accounts of the Society, together with a balance sheet showing the receipts, expenditure, funds and effects of the Society, and all necessary vouchers shall be submitted once in every year for audit to one of the Public Auditors appointed by the Minister for Industry and Commerce for the purpose of the Acts, who shall be selected in accordance with Rule 23. The Auditor shall have access to all the books, deeds, documents, vouchers, and accounts of the Society, and shall present statements of

61. The Committee shall, once at least in every three years, make out and send to the Registrar, together with the Annual Return for the year, a Special Return, signed by the Auditor, showing the holding of each person in the Society (whether in shares or loans) at the date to which the said Annual Return is made out, provided that where such persons are in the list of members kept by the Society distinguished by numbers it shall be sufficient if they are distinguished in the Special Return by such numbers, and in that case it shall not be necessary to specify their names.

Every alteration or amendment shall be duly registered and on registration issued with the rules of the Society for the time being. No new rule shall be made, nor shall any of the rules be repealed or altered, until the consent of the I.A.O.S. has been obtained, in writing, nor unless the text of the proposed new rules or amendments shall have been circulated with the notice convening the meeting.

69. Every dispute between the Society and a member of the Society or any person aggrieved who has for not more than six months ceased to be a member of the Society, or any person claiming through such member or person aggrieved or claiming under the rules of the Society, and the Society or an officer thereof shall, unless amicably adjusted, be submitted for arbitration to the Committee of the I.A.O.S., who may either arbitrate the case themselves, or appoint some person or persons to arbitrate it on their behalf. The costs of the arbitration shall be borne as the Committee of the I.A.O.S. directs, and such sum as said Committee decides shall be deposited prior to the hearing of the case. 72. (i) The net annual surplus of the Society available for allocation shall each year, after payment of interest on the loan capital (if any) be applied and allocated in any one or more of the following ways, so far as the amount thereof permits.

(a) To a reserve fund of such amount each year as the Society in General Meeting on the recommendation of the Committee may think proper. It shall be permissible for the Society, on such recommendation as aforesaid though not obligatory, to create such other or special reserve fund as may be thought proper and to place such sums to the credit thereof as may be thought fit.

And if the Society in General Meeting so resolve on the recommendation of the Committee:

(iii) A member whose shareholding in the Society would be increased by the allotment to him of an appropriate number of Bonus shares by virtue of a resolution passed in pursuance of the powers conferred on the Society by this Rule to a number in excess of that for the time being permitted by law or by the Rules of the Society shall be at liberty, with the approval of the Committee, to nominate a person qualified for membership of the Society under Rule 5 thereof as the person to whom such Bonus shares or such part thereof as would, if issued to such member as aforesaid, be in excess of the number of shares in the Society permitted to such person by law or by these rules, and thereupon such Bonus shares shall be issued to such last mentioned person.

(iv) Any member of the Society committing a breach of Clause (1) hereof shall pay to the Society by way of liquidated damages and not as a penalty the sum of five pence per cow per day for every cow's milk sold contrary thereto.
