PERSONAL STATEMENT

I'm Romy Koppert. I am 24 years old and a first-year Interaction Design student at Umeå Institute of Design. I have always been majorly attracted to creativity and the effects thereof.

After high school, I pursued a career in dance and managed to get a degree in dance while pursuing this passion of mine. However, after completing this degree I realized how much I missed being academically and cognitively challenged.

For this reason, I decided to unify my passion for creativity, desire for academic challenge and natural affinity with technology in a choice for a new direction; that of Industrial Designer. I received my bachelor degree at Eindhoven University of Technology and in those years got the chance to go on exchange to Umeå. I fell in love with the school, city and people and this motivated me to apply to the masters program Interaction Design at Umeå Institute of Design.

Besides design I also have a massive passion for the sport powerlifting. I compete in this sport on a yearly basis.
