Poitūkohu HB Lead

We have an exciting basketball program starting up this week. Coach Jordan Pomana will be running his HB Lead program over the next 5 weeks. This will be held at PGA on Wednesday afternoons from 1.30pm - 2.30pm. Tamariki who are participating should be back at school by 2.45pm.

The next 2 weeks will be focusing on our year 7&8 tamariki, the following 2 weeks will be focusing on our year 5&6, and our final week this term a program will be delivered to some of our year 3&4 tamariki. 15 tamariki participate in this program each week.

Variety Charity - Aasic Shoes

We would like to thank the Variety Charity for their kind donation of 25 pairs of brand new shoes. This has allowed for tamariki from Rooms 3&9 to be given these shoes.

Hawkes Bay Magpies Rugby ticket giveaway - Saturday 27 August

We would like to thank Matua Romana and Whaea Gina for registering our kura interest in the 100 ticket giveaway to last Saturday's game. From all the feedback we filled part of the stand with plenty of whānau from our kura!!

Skool Loop App

We have signed up to a NEW school app service. The new app system offers a lot more capabilities which include a school calendar, absentee tab, newsletter, notice and permission slip, and the possibility to book parent teacher interviews online. The absentee tab has the advantage of sending a message to both the office AND the student's teacher, or you can message or call the school directly from the app. The permission slips can be signed via the Skool Loop app and sent back straight away.

As whanau you are able to add yourselves to subgroups i.e. your children's classrooms, whare group etc. We are looking forward to moving along with technology and having the opportunity to book interviews when the time comes next term.

Please follow the instructions on how to get the Skool

Loop app, and if possible please fill out the permission form titled 'Skool Loop Check in Form' once you have downloaded the app.

At this stage Beep is still in use throughout the transition period.
