

When I was a young leader and college student, preparing to go overseas and serve for the Summer in the former Soviet Union, my heart was filled with excitement and a little fear at what it would be like to serve God overseas. At our team training, I remember being inspired by the words of Paul in Romans 15: 20-21. These words still inspire and motivate me today.

“My ambition has always been to preach the Good News where the name of Christ has never been heard, rather than where a church has already been started by someone else. I have been following the plan spoken of in the Scriptures, where it says, “Those who have never been told about him will see, and those who have never heard of him will understand.”

From our first day of ministry, these words have inspired our work at Global Frontiers Project. Our focus of work from the beginning until today has been Unreached, Unengaged People Groups around the world. This unique niche has allowed us to focus all of our resources on those places in the world where the Gospel has yet to reach. What that means is that there are no workers, no churches and no Christians in these parts of the world. What a privilege to be the first to bring the Gospel and to see the first people, in many cases ever, commit their lives to follow Jesus and see the Church raise up.

Thank you for supporting the work of Global Frontiers Project and being a part of bringing the Good News of Jesus to those who have never heard.

Until All Have Heard,

Reverend Rick Dunn

President.
