YOUR ECO FRIENDLY CHOICE

ECO FRIENDLY PACKAGING

Do consumers prefer environmentally friendly packaging?

Consumers are increasingly choosing products that are eco-friendly, transparent and in line with their values. ...

Globally, nearly 8 in 10 consumers surveyed say they value sustainability. Over 70% of these respondents would pay, on average, 35% more for eco-friendly brands.

Along with price and quality, consumers consider products' environmental impact. ...

Furthermore, researchers said 72% of respondents reported that they were actively buying more environmentally friendly products than they did five years ago, while 81% said they expected to buy even more over the next five years.
