- Always wanted to be captain of your own ship? Well now you can...
 - The big red ship in Gloucester is available to stay in NOW

Aye aye captain and all aboard! 🚩 If you've been looking for a memorable staycation for this summer, then look no further than Sula at the docks, the big, red historic ship in Gloucester...

The impressive ship is available to book this spring and summer through leading UK group accommodation provider, Big Cottages, and is the perfect way to holiday in style - as well as learn how to run your own ship and crewmates!

Sleeping up to four guests with an open plan living and dining area, Sula is a bright and quirky base for a UK family holiday. Enjoy exploring Gloucestershire and Cheltenham Spa, as well as the charming village of Painswick in the Cotswolds, just a 20 minute drive away.

The boat comes complete with original features such as the port windows in both of the spacious double bedrooms so you can enjoy spying on the pirates every morning!

Matt Fox, CEO and Founder of Big Cottages commented: “As we approach the 12th April we expect to see an increase in bookings of unusual or quirky properties as people look to make memorable trips for 2021.

“We’ve seen over 300 inquiries for ‘boat’ properties on-site too, so heading down to your nearest dock may be an upcoming trend this summer. The Sula is a great example of an unforgettable UK holiday experience, perfect for the whole family.”

With warm weather on the way too, you can enjoy your morning coffee on the sun deck whilst you enjoy the panoramic views. In the evening it’s the perfect spot to snuggle up and stargaze - sounds idyllic...

Words on the waves are that Sula has been discovered by local pirates on the hunt for treasure, so to make sure you snap up your staycation this summer, visit:
