DIVISION OF ENFORCEMENT’S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE A MOTION TO SET A BRIEFING SCHEDULE

The Division of Enforcement (“Division”) of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), in accordance with the Commission’s January 6, 2022 Order establishing procedures for filing further non-dispositive motions in these proceedings, respectfully requests leave to file a motion to set a briefing schedule regarding summary disposition.

In its January 6 Order, in response to Respondent’s numerous motions, the Commission established specific procedures for filing additional non-dispositive motions in this matter. In particular, the Commission required the parties to meet and confer, and for the moving party to seek and receive leave from the Commission prior to filing such a motion. Id. at 3.

Thus, the Division seeks leave for permission to file a motion to set a briefing schedule for the summary disposition motion that the Division intends to file.<sup>1</sup> The Commission, which is presently presiding as hearing officer in this proceeding, has authority to set a briefing schedule in order to regulate the conduct of these proceedings. See Rule 111(d), 17 C.F.R. § 201.111(d). The Division recognizes that the Commission has previously deferred issuing a briefing schedule for summary disposition briefing given the pendency of other motions. See Jan. 5, 2022 Order at 3, n.14; Jan. 12, 2022 Order at 8. However, as the Division hopes to explain in the motion it seeks leave to file, resolving all of those motions before briefing summary disposition is not necessary and setting a briefing schedule for summary disposition at this time will assist in bringing about a timely and orderly resolution of these proceedings.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The Commission’s January 6 Order requires that the parties meet and confer prior to filing a motion. The Division attempted, prior to filing this request, to meet and confer with Respondent regarding the Division’s intended motion to set a briefing schedule. Respondent stated by letter that it opposed efforts to schedule briefing on summary disposition at this time. Respondent and its officers refused to meet and confer based on their belief that the meet and confer would violate the Commission’s previous orders in this proceeding.

Accordingly, the Division respectfully requests that the Commission grant the Division leave to file a motion to set a summary disposition briefing schedule.

<sup>2</sup> The Commission’s January 6 Order also required any request for leave to file a motion to provide “justification for why the underlying motion must be considered and determined prior to summary disposition.” Jan. 6, 2022 Order at 3. Here, the underlying motion must be considered and determined prior to summary disposition, because the Commission’s previous orders foreclose the Division from moving for summary disposition until after the Commission has entered an order setting a briefing schedule.
