

Cookies Policy

(Last update: 29 September 2018)

L&M Plus Consulting Limited uses cookies on the company website <https://www.lmplusconsulting.com>.

By using this website, you consent to the use of cookies.

Our Cookies Policy explains what cookies are, how we use cookies, how third parties we may partner with may use cookies on our website, your choices regarding cookies and further information about cookies.

What are cookies

Cookies are small pieces of text sent by your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the website or a third party to recognise you and make your next visit easier and the website more useful to you. Cookies can be "persistent" or "session" cookies.

How L&M Plus Consulting Limited uses cookies

When you access and use our website, we may place a number of cookies files in your web browser. We collect information about your computer, including (where available) your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration. This is statistical data about our users' browsing actions and patterns, and we will not use it in isolation to identify you or any individual.

The L&M Plus Consulting Limited website is based on a content management system and, for the website to function, certain other cookies may be stored temporarily on your computer. In particular, "first party session cookies" - a small amount of text stored in the user's computer that is created by the website the user is visiting. By default, first-party cookies are allowed in every Web browser. If you were to disable first-party cookies, a website could not keep track of your activity as you move from page to page. They are required to ensure correct functioning of the website and are not used for any other purpose.

At present, we do not use "third party cookies".

What are your choices regarding cookies

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies by modifying the settings in your web browser; however, you may not be able to use all the features of the L&M Plus Consulting Limited website if cookies are disabled. For information on how to disable cookies, please consult the "Help" tab of your browser via the menu bar.

The information stored in cookies is safe and anonymous to any external third party.
