

Having trouble locating the bird? If you can't find it with the clues, try using these directions:

Preserve	Placement
Ashford Glen	On a three stemmed oak right off the trail
Bender Melon Farm	on the left side of the trail just before the bridge over the Rail Trail
Bennett Hill	If you climb to the tub and turn around (from whence you came on the green trail) , you will see the bird on the right.
Bozen Kill	Blue trail, left side going out, about 2/3 of the way out (not far)near the stream, beautiful rock wall across on the other side of the stream, in a small grove of pine trees
Fox	walnut tree by picnic table in clearing
Hollyhock Hollow	White trail at Hollyhock headed to the right. The bird is just past the huge and stacked pile of limestone boulders, on the opposite side of the trail.
Holt	It is on the yellow trail about halfway from either end. It's in a nice position overlooking the ravine.
Keleher	Jay - From the parking area, begin on the white trail then turn left to continue onto the white loop. The Blue Jay can be found near the 2nd crossing of the ATV road (approximately .5 miles from the trailhead)
Mosher Marsh	The wood duck is hidden in the Marsh, on the little walkway where the trail branches off to the left
Normans Kill East	On the green trail, between the sharp turn and the turn off for the creekside trail. Not far from the "Not a Trail" sign.
Normans Kill West	trail above river stairs, a little bit before the stairs down to the water when you take a right on the loop
Noonan	tree by memorial bench
Phillipin Kill	OWL placed near Bench North West, Red Trail
Restifo	Blue Jay - main trail near the stone wall
Schiffendecker	Woodpecker - yellow trail

Schoharie Creek	High water trail bridge
Strawberry Fields	Sugarbush
Swift	Where yellow trail meets blue trail
Touhey	Owl - About 100 yards in on the red trail if you start at the kiosk.
Van Dyke	Enter the trail by the parking lot and go straight until you see where you can go straight ahead or to the right over a bridge. That's the beginning of the loop. Go straight ahead. Do not go right.
Winn	Bird is up on White trail about .6 miles in on the burlled ironwood right on the trail.
Wolf Creek Falls	donated bench by stone wall
