

Position Description

Clinical Operations – Pharmacist Lead

Evio Overview

Evio is a Denver-based pharmacy solutions startup that works with health plans to transform the medication experience for everyone: patients, providers, and the system at large.

In 2019, a group of five amazing health plans that in total serve more than 20 million members recognized that despite the miracles that medications can deliver every day, the way medications get to patients is in need of reform—rapidly rising costs and inefficient system complexities have proven detrimental to patients and the industry alike. Each company made a significant investment to establish Evio as the independent entity to lead this transformation.

Evio will elevate the people who use medications to be the focus of all innovation, and apply real world evidence to build technology, solutions and insights. Achieving the quadruple aim of improved experiences and health outcomes for people, reduced costs, and clinician fulfillment is our goal. Clinical, evidence-driven drug decision making will lead everything Kent does.

Initially, Evio will offer services to each of the five investor health plans to complement other innovative pharmacy services the health plans offer. Upon launch, and on the path to broader transformation, Evio's first priorities include:

- Using evidence and data from real patient experiences to ensure the right medication gets to every patient, where, when and how they need it.
- Developing new, and enhancing existing, partnerships that leverage the innovation happening in the pharmacy and broader healthcare and analytics sectors today—to improve affordability, outcomes, and experience for patients.
- Continuing the evolution toward value based care and enhancing outcomes based contracting in the pharmacy space, especially on high cost drugs.

Product Lead Role

We are looking for a Clinical Pharmacist to join our leadership team to spearhead the support the creation and ongoing development of Evio's products and services designed to retransform the patient and provider experience.

Job Specifics

In partnership with product, clinical analytics and corporate development teams you will—

- Reimagine patient and provider medication experience based on all elements of the quadruple aim: affordability, clinical outcomes, patient experience and clinician fulfillment
- Prioritize initiatives and create multi-year roadmap with intermediate milestones and objectives

- Monitor and forecast the medication and health care pipeline for targeted opportunities for product strategy and development
- Work with both internal and external stakeholders to define offering, use cases, criteria, and transformational best practices
- Contribute in the design of real-world data analysis by applying health care data and other unique patient elements
- Provide subject matter expertise and clinical insights for corporate development and product teams in assessing potential vendor partners that align with Evio's vision
- Support efforts and technical work necessary to integrate of Evio's clinical point of view (POV) with third party patient tools and platforms that Evio might deliver, and customer plan tools, processes and workflows

The skills and experience you bring to this role include:

- Education: Bachelors of Pharmacy (B.S. Pharm) with residency or Doctorate of Pharmacy (Pharm.D.) degree.
- Licensure: Must have a current and unrestricted pharmacist license in at least one state of the United States.
- Deep commitment to Evio's mission and personal experience with the healthcare system and pharmacy
- A minimum of three (3) years experience preferred as a pharmacy manager or minimum of two (2) years experience in a health plan(s) with direct, hands-on experience with formulary and utilization management programs (clinical review/analysis, utilization management development and implementation), pharmacy and medical benefit claims analysis, and measuring impact/performance
- Knowledge of working within a healthcare business model, primarily around clinical programs, specialty pharmacy, and formulary/utilization management
- Experience with Medispan nomenclature in developing and structuring coding logic necessary for implementation, maintenance, oversight and reporting of clinical service offerings
- Experience is analyzing medical benefit drugs and associated services under the medical benefit, based on HCPCS, diagnostic codes, or applicable coding systems
- Desire to take ownership of pharmacist and medication-related issues and drive to "best in class" recommendations and communications
- Excellent written and oral presentation skills that cater to a variety of audiences (lay person, health care professionals)
- Experience reviewing and interpreting prescription and medical claims data:
 - Identifying trends and management opportunities.
 - Developing conclusions and actionable recommendations.
- Knowledge and experience with cost savings modeling and projections for budget impacts of high-profile medication and utilization management changes
- Previous experience in working with data scientists in the development of real-world evidence case scenarios and analytics is a plus
- Be able to work independently from home and support all time zones, regardless of where based.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment
- Ability to travel

The initial leadership team is critical to our culture and success. For all candidates, across roles and levels, you demonstrate that:

- You have a high degree alignment with Evio's mission and values
- Putting the patient first, leading with clinical, and doing something transformational for US healthcare is in your DNA
- You are an energy producer, with a proven ability to "get stuff done" (GSD) and support others
- You are a curious, creative and overall strong problem solver who is a go-to subject matter expert where you need to be
- You are a resilient challenger of the status quo that drives improvements on every topic from creating team rhythms and culture to the next clinical strategy for the team to pursue
- You thrive in ambiguity, and are comfortable rolling up your sleeves on business strategy, team, execution and other elements that will certainly change as the team fails fast, learns and pivots
- You are a proven leader who inspires confidence and establishes processes and team structures that are conducive to teammate and company growth
- You are emotionally intelligent and you do well collaborating with multiple parts of the business and functioning well with a variety of styles
