Brody Associates

Brody Associates is an innovative creative agency specialising in identity, typography and digital, established by internationally renowned Creative Director Neville Brody. They collaborate with a truly international roster of clients from independents to blue chip.

Brody Associates' approach is strategic, knowledge based, skilled and highly creative. Their project teams are deeply engaged with clients from appointment to completion. Careful project management throughout each project ensures expectations are met with time-frame precision and control of client budgets.

Brody Associates' main office is based in London but their network has representation in Berlin, Tokyo and Seoul. Their teams are agile and scalable and brought together based on the nature of the commission and the ambitions of the project.

Brody Associates works internationally, successfully delivering projects and working with clients across Europe, Asia, Middle East, North America, Africa and Latin America.

A selection of recent clients and projects includes:

- Corporate Typeface for The Coca Cola Company (North America)
- Global Typeface Family for Samsung Electronics (Asia)
- Brand Strategy and Identity for Christian Dior (Europe)
- Campaign Identity for Nikon (Asia)
- Brand Strategy and Identity for Dom Perignon (Europe)
