

(A)LSP Circuit Board

At Crafty Counsel, we are proud to present the beta version of our (A)LSP Circuit Board - the first step towards a new guide to Alternative Legal Service Providers which will connect the UK client community with their options.

With the full launch coming in Autumn, the (A)LSP Circuit Board will feature a dynamic map of the landscape, guides to categories and an interactive element. However, we need the help of the legal community in sharing their feedback and inputs for the launch of the in-depth, full guide in autumn.
